ket, and prices have eased off during the forenoon session. Superficial at the best, the market was soft, with widening pressure here and there, but the undertone is relatively good. There has been much selling around the room and evidence of nervousness. Some short lines have been put out, but they are not indicative of the bear side. The opening was lower, there bear side. The opening was lower, there was momentary steadiness and the prices steadily declined, but without evidence of any serious break impending. Leave the same day. The buyers are offering 3½c and 3½c per pound, live weight. of any serious break impending. In the decline L. and N. suffered severely, opening up with 1½ points loss, and exhibiting naked weakness. yesterday. It ran a special from Chicago, and another from Detroit, the trains being made up of Pullmans and passing through the city yesterday morning as sections of the regular train, No. 4 express, due here from the west at 4:30 o'clock. The Chicago train comprised twelve cars, and the Detroit train was about the same. The regular had additional cars, owing to the rush of the holiday traffic The Chicago express, due from the east at 11:25 p.m., went through on Tues-day night in two sections, the extra section being necessary owing to the holiday business.

THE Y. W. C. A. LUNCHROOM. The new lunchroom of the Public Library Building is proving a great convenience to the young women of this city who prefer getting their lunch down town to a long walk home for their usual dinner. The room is cool and airy, the lunch is daintily served, and the surprise is, how it can be do for the money, viz., eight tickets for one dollar to non-members, and ten tickets, for one dollar to members. A number of gentlemen have expressed a desire to be admitted to the privi-leges, but the laws are as inexorable as those of the Medes and Persians. The enterprise was started by the Y. W. C. A. for the benefit of the young women of the city, and it has proved a success judging from the number who have availed themselves of its privileges and the general satisfaction with its management. DAY-ROBERTSON.

The marriage of Miss Bella Robertson, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Robertson, of Simcoe street, to Mr. Hugh Day, of West Nissouri, was celebrated on Tuesday evening in the presence of a company of from 50 to 60 of the friends and relatives of the bride and groom. Rev. James Rollins. pastor of the King Street Presbyterian Church, officiated. The bride was attired in a gown of cream rope cloth, over satin, and she was assisted by Miss Annie Buskard, who wore linencolored organdie, trimmed with applique. The bride carried white roses and the The bride carried white roses and the bridesmaid a bouquet of pink roses.
