A DAY IN THE SPORTING WORLD

SIDE LIGHTS ON
MANY SPORTSBILL REIDY, CLEVELAND SCOUT,
COMING TO LONDON TOMORROW
TO LOOK AT DUNLOP AND NEALE

Is in St. Thomas Today to Look Over Bill Baker and Marlin Kopp—Has Heard Great Reports About Two London Players—Double-Header Tomorrow With Knotty Lee's Hamilton Club.

[BY JINX.]

Just a half hour before yesterday's game with Hamilton was to start, one of the worst thunderstorms of the season swept over the city, and in a few minutes the playing field at Tecumseh Park was a lake. Umpires J. Ira Davis and Jake Jacobson called the game off, and as a result a big double header will be played on Saturday.

This afternoon the teams will meet at Tecumseh Park in one game. It being Ladies' Day, a large number of the fair sex should be present.

Cleveland Scout Coming.

The first of the big league scouts, who annually make a tour of the Canadian League ball parks, will put in an appearance at Tecumseh Park on Saturday in the person of Bill Reidy, the former Brooklyn pitcher, who is now one of the Cleveland scouts. Reidy was in St. Thomas yesterday to look over Bill Baker and Marlin Kopp, but as the Saints and Red Sox had only played one inning yesterday when the big storm broke he did not get much of an opportunity to see either one of these men. Reidy will stop over in St. Thomas today, when a double-header will be staged by the Ortmans and Brantford team. It is likely Baker will pitch the second game so as to give the Cleveland scout a line on him.

PHILLIES DROP A COUPLE

Pirates Lost Close One to Cardinals, While Cincinnati Won Easily From the Reds.

New York, June 26.—New York took two games from Boston today by scores of 5 to 4 and 11 to 3. In the first game New York overcame a four-run lead and batted out a victory in the seventh, four singles, a pair of wild pitches, by Tyler, and Burns' double, which was made off James, netting four runs. Tyler did not allow New York a hit in the first five innings.

In the second game New York had everything its own way and the game developed into a farce after the fifth, when Hess was batted all over the field. Scores:

PETES SCORED EIGHT RUNS
IN TWO INNINGS AND WON

SCHUYLER WAS BATTED OFF THE MOUND IN SECOND—DUNN'S WILDLNESS COSTLY.

Peterboro, June 26.—After earning a run in the first today the Petes took seven in the second on six hits, a passed ball, and Dunn's wild throw to first, the catcher's wildness being responsible for three of them. The score was 9 to 7. "Doc" Burton, the Barrie recruit, led the Petes to a single for five innings, and one run in the eighth. Jack Fryer's double hit in two runs in the fourth, and Eban drove in another. In the fifth Burton's two-bagger scored Fryer and Witte, who had singled, and Wright's triple, with Belting pitching, made two more. Dunn was chased by Empire Daly in the seventh. Score:

St. Louis Betat Them in Fourteenth Inning—White Sox Took a Game From the Naps.

Washington, June 26.—Washington dropped both games of a double-header to the Athletics here this afternoon by 11 to 2 and 10 to 3. The Mackmen batted Groom and Mallin all over the lot, and had little difficulty in solving the deliveries of Griff's relief twirlers. Plank pitched the first game for the Athletics, and allowed but five hits. Washington pounded Carlos Brown hard in the third inning of the second game, and Mack substituted "Chief" Bender, who for the second time in two days came to the rescue and held the Nationals safe. DISGUISED AS BALL PLAYER
JOHNSON FLEES TO CANADA

Negro Fighter Jumps His Bail to Escape Jail Sentence and Is Now in Montreal—Crossed Border at Sarnia and Passed Through London on Wednesday Night.

Jack Johnson, the colored pugilist, will never again enter the United States. Last night he slept in a Montreal house, which could not be located, and he is now waiting for a boat, the name of which is unknown, to take him to Paris. He is accompanied by his wife, the notorious Lucille Cameron, and three men, two of whom are white.

Johnson was convicted in Chicago on a "white slave" charge. He was sentenced to one year's imprisonment, but was allowed out on $15,000 bail, pending an appeal. On Wednesday he jumped bail, crossed the border into Canada at Port Huron, and came to Hamilton by train, where he was met by a powerful motor car, which whisked him into Toronto. For several hours the car was stalled on the Lake Shore road, just outside the city limits, and Johnson sat in the tannery, the blinds of which were drawn. Johnson's car entered the road and rode with him to Hamilton, where the motor car was waiting.

Johnson's manager of Johnson in his two last big fights, Tom Flanagan, should be keenly interested in the black man's escape. Flanagan is a Canadian, is a Canadian, but on this particular subject he was about as silent as a clam.

Johnson was not in Toronto for more than 20 minutes. No one knew he was in Toronto except possibly the persons who were sent on ahead to make arrangements for the journey to Montreal.

For three weeks a party of sporting men were planning to get the fighter out of his country. Several schemes were mapped out, and the big idea, which caused Johnson to rid himself of Chicago and the United States was never indeed. A gang of about a dozen colored men were picked up from the streets of Chicago. They were organized into a make-believe baseball team. Chances are they had never seen a game except through a knothole. Bats and gloves were purchased to make the outfit complete. Johnson joined the party, and tickets were purchased on the Michigan Central through Canada via Port Huron to Buffalo, where the team was supposed to play a game.

Johnson was not the fifty-looking customer as of old. He had a new, flashy clothes and sparkling diamonds for cheap raiment and a slouch hat. A fake mustache adorned his upper lip. He was known as "John Johnson." He met no trouble at the border, the immigration official evidently not being a good judge of fake and genuine mustaches. It is said, however, that he was never so scared in his life, even in the ring, when he was riding the Michigan to the land of freedom. When the train passed through the tunnel at Port Huron he saw the hearing of his appeal from the "baseball team." She took an earlier
