SCUSSING DENTISTRY TERRING OF THE LICENTIATES OF THE ROYAL COLLEGE. W Beard Chescan-Unlikemed Fracti-tomers-The Dental Society of Ontario. Bout 60 licentiates of dental surgery in trio met in the lecture-room of the den-college at Victoria and Richmond tors of the royal college of dental sur-s of Ontario. The election is held y two years. Dr. C. S. Chittenden, ident of the outgoing board, was in the r. The secretary of the board, Dr. J. Wilmott of Toronto, read his report About 60 licentiates of dental surgery in Untario met iu the lecture-room of the dental college at Victoria and Richmond streets yesterday afternoon for the purpose of electing a board of seven persons as directors of the royal college of dental surgeons of Ontario. The election is held every two years. Dr. C. S. Chittenden. president of the outgoing board, was in the chair. The secretary of the board, Dr. J. B. Wilmott of Toronto, read his report. There was a balance on hand of $3062.11.
During the two years 27 matriculation certificates had been issued, against 18 the previous two years. Of the 27, 17 held intermediate certificates, 5 were second-class public school teachers, 3 of the council of physicians and surgeons of Ontario, 1 of the same society in the province of Quebec, and 1 was an undergraduate of the college of Kansas. In 1881 19 students presented themselves for examination, of which 17 passed. In 1882 19 students there were 5 applications for licenses, of which 23 passed. During the two years there were 5 applications for licenses, of which 23 passed. During the two years there were 5 applications for licenses, of which 24 were granted. In 1881 there were in attendance on the lectures of the school in all its departments. The treasurer's report gave the expenditure in detail. The new charts and saratomical specimes purchased in Paris for the college were exhibited to departments. The treasurer's report gave the expenditure in detail. The new oharts and anatomical specimens purchased in Paris for the college were exhibited to the licentiates and much approved of. Balloting was then commenced for the new board. Seven ballots were taken be-fore the election was complete, the gentle-men selected being Dr C S Chittendon (Hamilton), Dr J B Wilmott (Toronto), Dr H T Wood (Coburg) Dr Thos Rowe (Coburg), C A Martin (Ottawa), L Clements (Kingston), Dr R M Fisher (Toronto.) During the interval between the ballots a discussion took place regarding the sup-pression of unlicensed dentistry in Ontario and the propriety of increasing the term of pupilage at the dental college from two years to four years. Dr. Wilmot said that there were eight per-sons known to the board who practived dentistry without a license in the triangle between Kingston, Cornwall and Ottawa. The board would be happy to delegate power of attorney to any local district to appoint a detective to prosecute these un-licensed practitioners. The western part of the province was free from them. C. S. Caesar of Toronto, hoped the term of pupilage in the college would be ex-tended. Dr. Chittenden thought the licentiates ought to move slowly and surely in the matter. There was growing feeling in the province against the creation of professional monopolies. The people thought that the more professional men there were the better. The new board will meet for organization

Ald. Taylor presided at the board of health yesterday. The commissioner explained that the horses hired by the corporation had to be shod and if one should die the tion had to be shod and if one should die the oity would be responsible for the value of the horse. It was decided to advertise for tenders for furnishing horses, the persons tendering to take the risk of the horses dying and also to keep them shod. The commissioner expressed his opinion that the corporation should own its own horses. A petition signed by the proprietors of the Walker house and others for the removal of the zoo, was referred to Commissioner Coatsworth to look into. The license in spector sent in a requisition for the use of a horse and buggy and other articles needed to attend to his extra duties under the new by-law for the inspection of meats, butter and milk. The commistee thought it would be cheaper to give the inspector street oar tickets. Several other requisi-tions were concurred in.

biological science and has been awarded the royal medal by the royal society for his valuable contributions to the literature of this subject. In the expedition fitted out by his gevernment in 1868, he took a prominent part and he was later instru-mental in causing the dispatch of the Challenger for similar but more extensive researches. Dr. Carpenter has published several works on physiology and natural science which take high rank. His book, "Principles of Human Physiology," pub-lished in 1846, has gone through several editions and is regarded as a standard work. Mr. Mc-Kenzie of the house building association addressed the committee respecting the proposed sewer on Bloor street to drain into the Garrison creek. There was some doubt as to whether the petition was sufficiently signed and it was referred to the engineer for his report. Mrs. Callaghan asked that her drain be fixed, as the water and sewe-age backed into their cellars and the stench was unbearable. The commissioner stated that if the drain was a private one Mrs. Callaghan would have to pay for fixing it herself. Ald. George Evans asked to have

The attendance was large. THE CHAMPION LADY BICYCLIST. At a series of sporting events recently held in Philadelphia great interest was at-tached to the one-mile professional bicycle race, in which there was a lady competitor, namely, Mile. Louise Armaindo, who was styled in the program the "champion lady bicyclist." The young lady, who had a well-knit figure, led off from the start and proved an easy winner. Her victory was greeted with rounds of hearty applause. In the five-mile bicycle race she again con-fronted J. W. Morgan and T. W. Eck of Canada. She had got a good lead after several laps had been traversed, when the steering handle of her bicycle broke. Mor-gan was then second and Eck nearly a lap behind. The latter resigned his bicycle to her and she struggled gamely to winj but owing to the fact that the machine was 2½ inches higher than her own, she found it necessary to relinquish the contest, amid the sympathetic cheers of the bystanders. Morgan lapped the course three times after-wards in fine style and of course earned first honors. eight years ?" eight years?" "Sixteen barrels. 1 grank a guart per day. The nervous system of this gentleman does not seem to have been impaired by this excessive use of tobacco and liquor. first honors. Masty Marriages. Young people are always in too great a hurry to get married, that is to say girls are. The young men, unless they are try-ing to capture an heiress, are rarely in haste to be wedded. This anxiety of young girls to cross the boundary of commbialty often leads them into misery. They imagine themselves in love, and find, when it is too late, that him, to whom they have tied themselves for life, is not equal to their own ideal, and is a creature of very ordin-ary clay and selfishness. The unfortunate wife must suffer in silence, or be the sub-ject of a scandal that will ruin her, while it merely smirches for a time her husband. There is more truth than poetry in the statement that girls who marry in haste often repent at leisure. An English writer in pointing out the absolute need of "sanitary dairies," insists that "the premises must be structually adapted not to harbor morbid poisons, and that the employees and their families must be subjected to unusual inspection with be subjected to unusual inspection with a view to their isolation as soon as they show infectious disease." "A milk dealer," he adds, "should submit to be advised by a high-class architect, physician and chem-ist."

When the he t like a mist-veil floats, And poppies flame in the rye, And the silver note in the streamlet's throat Has softened almost to a sigh, It is July.

Then. James T. Fields in Harper's Magazine. Then the summer mornings were full of singing birds, always waiting outside our windows to help us begin the day with happiness. Then flowers were born as if to accompany the birds in their benevolent mission. Then all our dreams were pleas-ant imaginings, Arabian Nights' entertain-ments, frolio visions of untroubled joy. Then June was the longest and loveliest month in the calendar. Then we were never depressed by bad weather. Then headache had no lodgment nearer than our neighbor's brain. Then personal rheuma-When the hours are so still that time Then the nours are so that them lie Forgets them, and lets them lie Neath petals pink till the night stars wink At the sunset in the sky, It is July.

> When each finger-post by the way Says that Slumbertown is nigh; When the grass is tall, and the roses fall, And nobody wonders why. It is July.

A Denver woman telegraphed to police headquarters for an officer. Thinking that nothing short of a robbery had occurred, the chief dispatched four policemen in great hate. They reached the house out of breath with running. What did the woman want? Her little boy would not let her wash his face, and having threatened him with the police in vain, she concluded to try what effect their presence would have.

From the London Times, June 30. On Wedneeday a party of emigrants, mainly consisting of artisans and agricul-tural laborers and their wires, numbering altogether over 200, left Euston station for Liverpool, whence they will embark on board the steamship Parisian for Quebec, their ultimate designation being Manitoba and Ontario. They are assisted out to the amount of £330 by the Clerkenwell emigra-tion society, the chairman of which, Eev. A. Styleman Herring, vicar of St. Paul's, Clerkenwell, with J. J. Jones, member of the London school board, accompanies them. These gentlemen will travel over the dominion some 15,000 miles, visiting the 4500 people whom the society has al-ready helped out to Canada, the great ma-jority of whom are doing well. Mr. Her-ring has the permission of the dominion government to take out some of the unem-ployed at reduced rates. The party com-primes men likely to succed, from Scotland, St. Assph's, Wil'shire and Hampshire. By the same ship two young ladies send away
