LISTLESS, PEEVISH GIRLS

When a girl in her teens becomes peevish, listless and dull, when nothing seems to interest her, and dainties do not tempt her appetite, you may be certain she needs more good blood than her system is provided with. Before long her pallid cheeks, frequent headaches, and breathlessness and heart palpitation will confirm that she is anaemic. Many mothers as the result of their own girlhood experience can promptly detect the early signs of anaemia, and the wise mother does not wait for the trouble to develop further, but at once gives her daughter a course with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which renew the blood supply and banish anaemia before it has obtained a hold upon the system.

Out of their experience thousands of mothers know that anaemia is the sure road to worse ills. They know the difference that good, red blood makes in the development of womanly health. Every headache, every gasp for breath that follows the slightest exertion by the anaemic girl, every pain she suffers in her back and limbs are reproaches if you have not taken the best steps to give your weak girl new blood, and the only sure way to do so is through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

New, rich red blood is infused into the system by every dose of these pills. From this new rich blood springs good health, an increased appetite, new energy, high spirits and perfect womanly development. Give your daughter Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, take them yourself and note how promptly their influence is felt in better health.

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail post-paid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

MUST PRESERVE PEACE

Premier Speaks of Duty of the British Empire.

Right Hon. Arthur Meighen Has Returned From Imperial Conference, and He Describes Importance in World Politics of These Meetings of Heads of Federated Free Dominions That Center Round Throne of King George.

HALIFAX, N.S., Aug. 9.—"I will give you one thought that the experience of the past few weeks has impressed upon my mind. I have been impressed with the real value, the undoubted necessity of these conferences. It is not a mere platitude much less an empty patriotic boast to say that Great Britain is the greatest factor in the world today for preserving peace. It is a practical, a solemn vital truth. In the very nature of things she is the dayman among the nations of Europe, and you cannot in these days have peace anywhere unless you have at least substantial peace in Europe. The influence of the British statesmen in the councils of the world is greater, because the Dominions and India are within the Empire and because she reflects or wants to reflect their views as well as her own."

It was the Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, Premier of Canada, who, after several weeks sojourn in London in consultation with the Prime Ministers of various sections of the British Empire, expressed this sentiment to a crowd of Canadians, gathered at the pierhead here on Saturday evening to welcome him home. Brought by the Atlantic sun, and with an eye sparkling with pleasure, he stepped from the gang-plank of the steamer Carmania the Premier replied to the address presented to him on behalf of the City of Halifax by Major John S. Parker. He was reticent, however, in touching on the proceedings of the Imperial Conference, and in the course of conversation with the Canadian Press, indicated that he would be unable to express any opinion on the important national and international matters under consideration in London, before consultation with his colleagues.

With regard to Canadian affairs Mr. Meighen was optimistic. "I know there is much to be done and I have been impatient to get back to take a hand in the work," he told the crowd on the pier, "but those who lament about Canada have not seen much of other countries in these times." Again, with reference to the importance of the Imperial Conference, he expressed obvious enthusiasm. "There is no question that the people of the British Isles are sincerely anxious to get the standpoint of the Dominions. Their Government wants us to understand all the facts of the situation, to get our opinions and to shape its course in consonance with the considered judgment of the entire league of British Nations," he said. "That is the purpose of consultation in conferences. So far as the foreign policy is concerned—I do not think there are many in Canada who would have this country decline the invitation to come and help, who would have us ignore the call to come and reason together. We must walk with the nations of this Empire or walk away from them. The gospel of isolation is the gospel of separation, under a thin disguise. We enjoy the fullest self-government that heart of a people could desire. That is our heritage—and I know of no one who wants to take it away. Under these conditions I am for co-operation and for unity. I believe in the British Empire."

"We have our troubles here in Canada—the disturbances of trade, the restlessness and disorder that seem epidemic in these times have not left us unmolested. But we are in a sound position and a comparatively strong position. Let us take courage and confidence and let every class be reasonable, and there will soon be work for all who are ready to work and ten years from now this country will be the envy of the world."

WILL APPEAL TO KING.

Indians Leave for London on Unique Mission.

BRANTFORD, Ont., Aug. 9.—Levi Generer and David S. Hill, of the Six Nations Indians, have left for Rochester, where they will meet Attorney J. Decker and Chief General, to form the deputation which will go to London to present to King George himself the Six Nations Indian protest against interference by the Canadian Department of Indian Affairs, in the affairs of the Six Nations.

The united tribes claim that by virtue of the treaty under which they came to the Grand River valley, after the war of the revolution, they are completely independent within their own limits. The specific cause of complaint is the bill to provide for enfranchisement of Indians as Canadian citizens. They contend that they are allies of the British Crown, and not subject to Canadian rule.
