Correspondence.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our correspondents. (To the Editor of the Monitor.)

I noticed in one of the late numbers of the Monitor an article from some one of your correspondents, signed "Albany," making inquiry why the Government could not be allowed to arrange matters for speedy commencement of operations, and not leaving all the details to the contractor.

In view of the corruption and unjust dealing on the part of the Government and M. P.'s representing the counties, it is not surprising that the contractor is not allowed to arrange matters for speedy commencement of operations, and not leaving all the details to the contractor.
