

DOCTORS COULD NOT HELP MY KIDNEYS

"Fruit-a-tives" Cured Me

MR. GEO. W. BARKLEY

CHESTERVILLE, ONT., JAN. 25th, 1911
"For over twenty years, I have been troubled with Kidney Disease and the doctors told me they could do me no good. They said my case was incurable and I would suffer all my life. I doctored with different medical men and tried many advertised remedies, but there was none that suited my case. Nearly a year ago, I tried 'Fruit-a-tives'. I have been using them nearly all the time since, and am glad to say that I am cured. I have no trouble now with my kidneys and I give 'Fruit-a-tives' the credit of doing what the doctors said was impossible. I am seventy-six years old and am in first class health."
GEO. W. BARKLEY.

50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Bishop Jaggar, a well-known summer tourist to Nova Scotia, died at Cannes, France, on Friday, Dec. 13th. He was born in New York on the 2nd July, 1839, and was appointed Bishop in 1875, after serving many years as rector in New Jersey and New York parishes. He was the author of several essays and sermons, and was twice married. He is survived by his widow, one son and one daughter. He built a summer home in Digby in 1888. His death was caused by bronchial and heart trouble. His remains were buried in Boston.

REPRIEVE FOR GRAVES BROTHERS

The Chief Justice, Sir Charles Townshend, signed an order yesterday for the reprieve of the Graves brothers, under sentence for murder, pending the consideration of the appeal by the Supreme Court of Canada.

"What's the matter with your wife? She's all broken up lately."
"She got a terrible jar."
"What has happened?"
"Why, she was assisting at a rummage sale, took off her new hat, and somebody sold it for thirty-five cents."

Superiority of a Man of Fifty.

New York, Dec. 29.—A cable from Berlin says:—

"The man of fifty," is the subject of a Christmas symposium in the Tageblatt. Medical experts, business men, and artists agree that a man of fifty is no older than a man at forty, and in numerous instances decidedly more useful.

Professor Krause asserts that it is absurd to describe a man of fifty as even growing old. Only in exceptional cases, due to special causes, does he reveal decreased elasticity.

Dr. Krause recommends sane sport as the best insurance against old age for a man of fifty.

Dr. Lappmann, another eminent specialist, declares that a man of fifty is in highly superior intellectual worth, and, on account of his reliability, steadiness, experience, and rational living, possesses countless physical and moral advantages over a younger man.

Professor Arthur Kampf, president of the Royal Academy, says great artists of all times have done their best work between the ages of forty and sixty.

Dr. Leon Zeitlin, secretary of the Berlin Retail Trades Association, blames the Americanization of German commercial life for increasing the prejudice against men of fifty, which manifests itself in the ruthless casting out of employees who have reached a certain age, and the supersession by younger men.

DEATH OF GRANT'S MOTHER

A touching incident in connection with the case of Grant the murderer awaiting the death penalty was the death at her home in Antigonish on Christmas Day, of his mother, who has been bedridden for two years and had suffered from chronic heart trouble so badly she could be raised in the bed only with difficulty. The poor old woman never knew of her son's sentence or even of his escape here and his imprisonment, the news being carefully kept from her, and she passed out of the world unaware of his doings. Her last words were calling for him to come to her. The news of the death of the mother has not yet been communicated to the imprisoned son.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CO., LTD.

Gentlemen.—I have used MINARD'S LINIMENT from time to time for the past twenty years. It was recommended to me by a prominent physician of Montreal, who called it the "great Nova Scotia Liniment." It does the doctor's work; it is particularly good in cases of Rheumatism and Sprains.

Yours truly,

Chartered Accountant.

The Young People's Society of a Chicago church actually carry an advertisement in certain papers in that city to the effect that they cure "loneliness," which, being interpreted is, "if you are a stranger in the city and lonely, come to us and find healthy, uplifting companionship." That is what I call practical Christianity. It saves many a lonely boy and girl, young men and young women from the gilded places of sociability that tend downward to ruin.

Ottawa Journal.—Probably four-fifths of all the murders in English-speaking countries are committed by means of the revolver or pistol; and probably not half the murders would be committed if such weapons were not available.

Joker's Corner.

HIS DEFINITION.

A lecturer at a suburban school was explaining to his audience, which consisted mostly of boys, the functions of a lucimeter, an instrument for measuring light, and at the conclusion he asked for a definition of the machine.

One raw youth stood up.

"Is it a lucimeter as yer want to know about?"

"Yes," said the lecturer.

"Well, that's me. I meets Lucy every night at seven, and if there's any love in this 'ere meetin' tries to be a Lucy meter, that Lucy meter'll bust, or me name ain't Jarge."

VERY MUCH ALIVE.

An Irishman, with one side of his face badly swollen, stepped into Dr. Hurtem's office and inquired if the dentist was in.

"I am the dentist," said the doctor.

"Well, then, I want to know if you can tell me what's the matter" with this tooth?"

The doctor examined the offending molar and explained: "The nerve is dead; that's what's the matter."
"That's the powers," the Irishman exclaimed, "the other teeth must be holding a wake over it."

WEATHER FORECASTS

MORE FAVORABLE.

"Can you tell what sort of weather we may expect next month?" asked a subscriber of the editor of a weekly paper.

And the editor replied as follows: "It is my belief that the weather next month will be very much like your subscription."

The inquirer wondered for an hour what the editor was driving at, when he happened to think of the "unsettled." He sent the required amount next day.

WHAT MATTER WHICH?

When the news became known, his fellow-clerks gathered around and congratulated him.

"But," said one man doubtfully, "I understand the girl your engaged to is a twin. Bit awkward, isn't it? How do you tell the difference between her and her sister?"

The man who had just spent six weeks' salary on an engagement ring smiled indulgently.

"Tut! That's all right, they're a jolly nice family, anyway, and I never bother very much which one it is."

PRETTY PERSONAL.

In one of the large cities a street car collided with a milk cart and sent an after can of milk splashing into the street. Soon a large crowd gathered. A very short man coming up had to stand on tiptoe to see past a stout woman in front.

"Goodness!" he exclaimed. "What an awful waste."

The stout woman turned around and glared at the little man and said sternly: "Mind your own business."

STOOD THE TEST.

"So you want to marry my daughter?"

"Yes, sir."

"Got any money saved up?"

"Yes, sir."

"Could you let me have five thousand dollars on my unsecured note?"

"I could, but I wouldn't."

"I guess you can take care of her all right. She's your's, my boy, and here's a five-cent cigar."

PAT'S ANSWER.

An Irishman once entered into conversation with an Englishman. "The Englishman, thinking to have a joke with his companion, asked, 'How many hairs on a pig's face?'"

"Begorra, sir," said Pat, "the next time you shave you can count them."

"Jim," said an honest coal dealer to one of his men, "Jim, make that ton of coal two hundred pounds short. It's for a poor, delicate widow, and she will have to carry all of it up two flights of stairs. I don't want to overtax her strength."

Teacher—"If the earth were empty inside it would resemble—"

Scholar—"A razor."

Teacher—"A razor? Why, Teddy?"

Scholar—"Because it would be hollow ground."

Kentville Advertiser.—Messrs. A. and B. Stewart, of Toronto, will leave for Kentville, on or about the first of the New Year. They have in view the erecting here of a departmental store and a first-class hotel.

Both are to be built of brick and if arrangements can be completed, these buildings will be finished early in the coming summer. Both the above gentlemen are men of comparatively unlimited means, so we are informed, and using the old German phrase the people who are in business in this town will have to cut their prices "shorter than a rabbit's tail" to compete with them when they get established.

Smile awhile, and while you smile another smiles, And soon there's smiles, And miles of smiles, And life's worth while Because you smile.

BELIEVES IT WAS A RESIDENCE OF TIBERIOUS CAESAR.

Professor Boni Has Just Announced Discovery That Harks Back to the Days of Roman Pomp.

Rome, Dec. 27.—Another of Professor Boni's discoveries in his investigations of Palestine is reported. He has re-opened a house of the early imperial period, which was partly uncovered in 1730, and subsequently reburied. Professor Boni is confident from the inscriptions and other evidence that it was the residence of Tiberious Caesar and Julia, the daughter of Augustus. Amongst the minor evidence which he has discovered are luxurious fittings which correspond to the capricious, exacting character of Julia, who, according to Suetonius, Tiberious reluctantly married. A large bath and hot and cold water supply are among the fittings.

There is an underground cellar beneath the house which Professor Boni tentatively identified, and the prison where Drusus starved to death as narrated... by Tacitus.
