THE MONTREAL DEMONSTRATION. MONTREAL, Jan. 12.—The great commercial metropolis of Canada was indeed on this evening, tens of thousands of its citizens of all degrees and classes having turned out to honor and welcome and congratulate the veteran statesman and Premier of the Dominion...

On stepping out of the railway car Sir John was met by the Mayor and an influential committee of the city, including all the city members except Mr. Gault, M.P., who was in the city from attending to his business.

THE PROCESSION. In the carriage with the hero of the demonstration were seated Sir J. F. Ross, Mayor, Sir Hector Longueville and Mr G. A. Drummond, the chairman of the citizens' committee.

AN OVERTON ALL THE WAY. At the great chief, such as has never been given to him, making Canada his headquarters at Victoria square, while the procession was proceeding, a grand display of fireworks...

There is considerable trouble in the war department. Orders have been sent to Chatham, Portsmouth and Woolwich which have called considerable excitement.

LETTERS WELCOMING SIR JOHN. In English and French, with the dates 1815 to 1816 conspicuous on the front. The hall filled up with lightning rapidly, the torch-light men entering with the others, and until they extinguished their lights when the speaking commenced the sight of packed humanity...

ADDRESS OF WELCOME. Hon. J. L. Ross, with his chain of office on his breast, read the address of welcome and congratulation. On the mayor concluding, Sir John, looking in vigorous health and strength, bowed to the audience and received a rousing applause that lasted a long time.

It is proposed that Hon. Mr. Norquay lecture in England on the resources of the Northwest. That is a good idea, and he should expose the malignant nature of the Farmer's Union movement at the same time.

THE MASONIC BALL. For they were Master Masons, As they Listened to the Law, When the Chaplain did expound it, As Horam did before.

On Tuesday evening about nine o'clock a representative of the NOR-WESTER took a peep into the scenes of Calgary Theatre Hall where he found Mr. and Mrs. Fraser, the competent and careful caterers of the Masonic ball truly wrestling with the good things with which the tables were to be supplied.

The conspicuous feature of the entalies was quantity and quality. The good things were fairly piled up, showing that the host fully appreciated the meaning of the word 'plenty' and the artistically wrought escarpment which here and there 'turned their generous horns' fully bore out the circumstances that plenty there was.

Major Kitchner has returned there, having left Galka on the 14th instant. Major Kitchner reports all quiet when he left, and the troops healthy. The Galka had built two forts for protection, and had made several roads. The natives in the vicinity believe the English soldiers are Turks, and keep away, fearing fire-arms.

General Sir John Henry Lefroy delivered an address on Monday evening before the Royal Colonial Institute, at its rooms at the Strand. He said that one of the most memorable events in colonial history was the meeting of the British Association in Canada last fall.

NEWS DIAL.
