COMPOUND CHAMOMILE CORDIAL.

This Cordial, as its name announces is prepared scientifically by a Member of the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain, from the Flowers of Chamomile and other vegetable ingredients imported expressly from London.

These inestimable virtues, while fully preserved, are most delicately concentrated and given liquid in the Cordial, which from its transparency and golden colour, resembles Wine, and as such may be used at discretion.

TESTIMONIALS

Messrs. REXFORD & Co., Toronto, June 20th, 1852. Gentlemen.—We have tasted the Sample Bottle with which you favoured us, of your "Compound Chamomile Cordial," and find it as you describe, fragrant and agreeable to the palate, and consider it an excellent Preparation for the use of the valuable Tonic Properties of the Flowers of Chamomile.

We are, &c., GEORGE HERRICK, M.D. JOHN KING, M.D.

77 Bay Street Toronto June 29 1852. Gentlemen.—I duly received and have tried the Sample of Compound Chamomile Cordial, which you sent me.

Aware of the manner in which you prepare it, and of the nature and quality of the ingredients which you employ in its manufacture I cannot object to express to you in my writing my opinion of it, which I should not hesitate to do under different circumstances.

I consider a very elegant Pharmaceutical Preparation, perfectly adapted to be exceedingly useful in a dietetical as well as therapeutic point of view. It will serve as an excellent adjuvant for much of the trash which is purchased as Wine for the use of invalids and will also prove an excellent medium for the agreeable conveyance of tonics, which, without some sustenance, are often rejected against and rejected by the stomach.

I am, Gentlemen, Yours, &c., FRANCIS RADGLEY, M.D.

Messrs. Rexford, & Co. Hamilton, July 2nd, 1852.

Messrs. REXFORD & Co., Gentlemen.—I duly received and have tried the Sample of "Compound Chamomile Cordial" which you sent me. I consider it a very elegant Preparation, and useful in all cases where a mild Tonic is required, more especially in cases of Dyspepsia, and the weakness of the Stomach, it being very agreeable to taste, and to be taken by any one.

I am, &c., THOMAS DUGAN, Surgeon.

Messrs. REXFORD & Co., London, C.W., June 18th, 1852.

Gentlemen.—I have received the Sample Bottle of your "Compound Chamomile Cordial," and consider it a beautiful as well as highly palatable preparation. The aromatic and peculiar bitter flavor, in which lies the essential Medicinal qualities, appear to be largely infused and well preserved, and as this vegetable Tonic is highly beneficial in those forms of Dyspepsia, depending on indolence, or want of tone of the digestive organs, (the form most frequently met with on this continent,) your Cordial will, I doubt not, form an inestimable addition to our Pharmopoeia.

From the knowledge possessed by me of Mr. Rexford, and his very high reputation as a Pharmaceutical Chemist, I feel much pleasure in confidently recommending his preparation of this valuable Tonic to my Professional brethren, and to the public, as a delightful and invigorating Cordial.

I am, Yours, &c., GEORGE HOLME, Surgeon.

Messrs. REXFORD & Co, Toronto, Gentlemen.—I have no hesitation in expressing to you my professional approbation of your "Compound Chamomile Cordial." The Tonic properties of the Flowers of Chamomile, with which it is finely blended, are so universally acknowledged, and the Medicinal qualities of that vegetable ingredient so fully admitted in Dyspeptic complaints, that I consider the use of administering it in the pleasing form of a Cordial most happy; and

In the face of your preparation, so successful, that it cannot fail to be a blessing to the public.

H. MOUNT, M.D., Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London.

This Cordial is sold generally by all respectable Chemists, &c. The only wholesale agents in Canada R. & Co., and signed by the Proprietors.—Name cited in my German.

The Castilian Hair Invigorator.

THIS elegant Toilet Preparation is warranted to excel all others ever introduced to the public, for preserving and restoring the hair. It prevents in every instance of grey hair, dandruff, and itching, and what is of the highest importance, is that it is unlike most other Toilet preparations, being perfectly harmless, yet efficacious for the purposes intended. It gives the hair a beautiful soft, smooth and glossy appearance; in this it also differs from other preparations, all of which tend to dry and irritate the hair. The Spanish Ladies who justly famed for beautiful and glossy hair, have used

The Castilian Hair Invigorator for centuries. It causes the hair to retain its original colour to the latest period of life, only making it assume a darker shade if originally very light. Diamond hair brushes and falls out or turns grey. The invigorator restores such diseases, and restores the skin and hair to a healthy condition.
