LEAF TOBACCO.—No animation in the market since our last, and no change in prices.

SALT —There have been large arrivals by the Spring feet, and Liverpool Coarse is offering freely at 45 to 50 c per sack. The prospects are good for cheap inland freight, and our Western friends will probably get their supplies cheaper now than later in the season. Ladiz is offering at 12 to 15 c. per minot.

REVIEW OF THE MAR	KETS.

REVIEW OF THE MARKETS.

FLOUR.—The arrivals this week have not been quite equal to the demand. There has been a fair enquiry for good brands, especially for good brands of strong super. Bag Flour is extremely scarce and in great demand, bringing $2.771 to $2.80.

Asires.—This market still keeps dull First Pots were sold during the week at from $5.20 to $5.25.

Inferiors are unasked for, and over $5.40 with the usual deductions cannot be got. A round lot of second Pearls changed hands yesterday at an exceptional price.

BUTTER.—This market has shown rather more life these few days past, but prices have not advanced materially, parties holding being give to clear out their lots at even the present low prices. Petroleum.—The market is duil, with small de-

CIRCULAR.

GOULD'S BLOCK, Corner Grey Nun and William streets, Montreal, May 11, 1865.

Gould's Block,
Corner Grey Man and William streets,
Montreal, May 11, 1865.

We avail ourselves of the opportunity presented by our removing to now and enlarged premoves, to thank our friends for their past favours, and to renew the offer of our services, as Commission Agents, for the sale of such Produce or Provisions as may be designed for sale in this market.

We possess an active experience of many years in the commission business, an intilate knowledge of its varied requirements, practical skill in determining the worth of the soveral products and ample means and facilities for the efficient management of the business.
That no interests of ours may conflict with or endanger those of our consignors, we avoid all private speculations, and by restricting ourselves to the commission business, are enabled to bestow our exclusive time and personal attention to the interests of customers.

Promptness both with respect to ales and returns has been our aim throughout, a point which our extended and rapidly increasing connection proves to be appreciated by consignors.

While taking special pains to avoid incidental charges, our scale of commissions is at the same time the lowest adopted by any responsible house in the trade.

The rapid growth and extent of our business in Butter and rrowisions demanding increased accommodation, we have removed to those capacions and central premises known as Gould's Block, corner of William and Groy Aun streets, where with greatly improved facilities these branches will receive even increased attention and efficiency.

We continue to accept drafts or make cash advances against bill of lading or forwar rs' receipts for a liberal proportion of the value of consignments.

Hoping for a share of your business,

We remain,

Your most obedient servants,
