

Schou, W. Myers Gray and W. Taylor, elected. Delegates to General Synod of Canada: Revs H. G. Fiennes-Clinton and L. N. Tucker, Messrs W. Myers Gray and W. J. Armstrong; AUDITORS: Messrs R. E. BISHOP Browne, recently translated to the Bishopric of Bristol, has been succeeded as Bishop of Stepney, by Canon Winnington-Ingram, the successful Head of the Oxford House in E. London for the past nine years. The new Bishop is only thirty-seven years old, but has proved himself as possessing special gifts for dealing with the men of E. London. As Bishop he will have still wider interests and larger influence. Keble men feel especially honoured in his appointment, as the first Keble man who has been elevated to the Episcopacy. Shake hands brother Irwin!
