

Strangers and new comers feel at home with us.

Farewell Notes.

THE PASTOR BIDS FAREWELL to-day to the North Church. This evening he will deliver his last message as undershepherd of this congregation. The three years and a half have passed very rapidly. Many changes have taken place. Old faces are gone, new ones have come. We have had many things to be thankful for during these years. The saving power of the Holy Spirit has been mightily felt among us. Many have found the Savior. There has been an unusually high tone of spiritual life sustained in our prayer services. The After Meeting on Sunday evening has been a place of refreshing. The evening services have been well attended. This evening two believers obey their Lord in baptism, making in all sixty-nine who have been baptized by the pastor. A good many have come in by letter to take the place of those who have gone by death and removal. In spiritual results these years have been fruitful. The spirit of revival has been with us.

Our Bloomfield Mission under the wise and spiritual management of the committee, is in a most flourishing condition.

Our Church Calendar has been circulating all over the world and is an important factor in the work of the church. The yearly bound copies preserve a condensed history of the work accomplished. The calendar will continue its weekly message.

Our new Pipe Organ has been purchased and nearly paid for. The Lord has blessed the labors of the Pastor and people. The work that they have done will live on. The Pastor leaves because he has seen certain things accomplished, and now believes that someone else can effect other advances greatly needed. To each one is given a certain work by the Master, and it is for us to find out what that is, and then do it with all our might. The Pastor has taught this by precept and example. The standard set has been high, but not higher than the Word of God. The ideal has been to do the will of God as revealed in His Word and incarnated in our lives. Who can estimate the results of the earnest labors of Pastor and people for the Lord.

The Nova Scotia Central Baptist Association meets in June with the Dartmouth Church. That will give us an excellent opportunity to attend one of our important denominational meetings.

Applications for Sittings should be made to Deacon Jas McPherson. The seats are assigned, not rented. Each holder of a sitting is expected to be a contributor.
