On the 31st day of this present month of March, Sir John Franklin and the crews of both March, Sir John Franklin and the crews of both his ships are to be considered as dead, according to a decree of the British Government. In mentioning this fact, the U.S. Gazette relates the case of Lt. Bonneville, who, upon returning from a long visit to the Rocky Mountains, found himself dead on the books of the Adjutant-depend's office at Washington, and others promoted over him. The officials were in great trouble, and didn't know how to get over the regard; when Presidant Jackson, who was a man of some civil courage, drew his pen through the lying obituary, and restored the gallent Lieutenant to life, to his right and to his back pay.

DIED.

At Douglas, County of Renfrew, on the 30th March, Mr. John McFarlane. Carpenter—aged 36 years—The deceased was Past Master of Burnstown Lodge. His remains were taken from Dougals to Renfrew, where they were met by four of the neighbouring Lodges, with four stand of colors, the Brethren in Regalia and was interred with Orange honors—although but a few hours notice had been given a very large number of the Brethren attended, along with many other friends of the deceased.

The deceased was highly respected by all who The deceased was highly respected by all who knew him. He had only got married three weeks from the day, upon which his remains were interred—although dead, his memory will long live in the hearts of the Brethren of Renfrew.—Communicated
