"Resolved, That we still array ourselves in uncompromising hostility to the license system, believing that a Christian country should never legalize what God prohibits. We consider the Scott Act a stepping stone to our goal of total prohibition, and the most consistent legislation we have hitherto had, insenuoli as it is the most prohibitory in its character and thus near-ost the divine law. Also that the inelli-ciency of the Scott Act is owing to the unwillinguess, if not to complicity with its substors, of the officials entrusted with its enforcement. Also resolved, that the hearty sympathy of this convention be extended to our temperance friends through-out the province who have suffered less or persecution through their faithful adherence to the enforcement of the Scott Act.
