PRIZE PROHIBITION SONGS.

A short time ago the United Kingdom Alliance offered three prizes for the three best original songs, to be sent in so marked that the gentleman appointed to examine them could not know who were the authors, the names being placed in envelopes separate from the songs. Mr. Samuel Pope was the adjudicator. The winner of the first prize did not send his name but stated in the envelope which should have contained it, that the money, if he were successful, was to be paid to the Alliance fund. The names of the authors of the second and third prize songs were given. Mr. Pope states in his report that the three points which he considered in making his award were (1) original poetic feeling, (2) construction of rhythm, (3) lyric character, (sing ability). We publish all the songs in full below, taking them from the Alliance News.

LOUD CHEERS FOR LOCAL OPTION.

(FIRST PRIZE.) By "LEX." Loud cheers for Local Option, The people's power to say They will not have the drink-shop, To tempt them and betray No Law should force the people The Liquor trade to bear, With all its load of evils, And burden of despair! Chorus—Loud cheers for Local Option, The people's power to say They will not have the drink-shop, To tempt them and betray.

They tell us that pale Famino And Postillone, and Sword Do not so rank a harvest Of lives to Death afford: They come, they pass, and nations Look up with hope again, But this, the scourge of scourges, Law suffers to remain! Chorus—Loud cheers for Local Option, etc.

Prate not of "vested interests," Of Brewers and the rest, The people have no interest In such a public pest A tree with fruit so bitter Deserves one only fate,— It should not have the sanction But sentence, of the State. Chorus—Loud cheers for Local Option, etc.

Make way then for the people, Their right aloud proclaim To deal with this dire traffic, The Nation's curse and shame; Give to them Local Option, To choose what they will do, That to their homes and country They may be just and true. Chorus—Loud cheers for Local Option, etc.

TEMPERANCE SONG.

(SECOND PRIZE.) (Tune—"Men of Harlech.") BY JOHN WILSON, LONDON, & CHAMBERLAND Men of Britain, are you willing Still to shield a foe that's killing Young and old, and daily filling Our loved land with woe? By your homes, each son and sire, By your British strength and fire, By what loves your hearts inspire, Swear to lay him low. Hear the mothers crying, See the children dying, Haste to save, ye young and brave, The rampant foe defying. Join in every true endeavor, Join your hands and falter never, Join to day and join forever, Never coldness know.

And ye women, tender-hearted, Would you see your hearth's deserted? Would you from your sons be parted By the bitter curse! No, then rise with breasts on fire, Work, and pray, and never tire, Urge, persuade, constrain, desire, 'Tis your subtle force. Hearts will be relenting, Sinful men repenting, By the guile of woman's smile, To lives of truth consenting. Oh, ye women, save the nation, Rich and poor, and every station, Rise—make for it proclamation, To overthrow the curse.

Make no timid false concession, Take the drink on no occasion, Drive the drink-shops from the nation By the people's voice. Save the vine tree, save the barley, Save our sons and daughters early, Right and crime can hold no parley, People make your choice. Would you hear the ringing Songs of freedom singing, See the earth in second birth, In righteousness upspringing! Rise then now and do your duty, Crush the wrong, let none confute you, Make earth shine in faultless beauty, Make high Heaven rejoice.

HARK FROM ALBION.

(THIRD PRIZE.) BY REV. W. CATHOATE. Hark from Albion! hark from Scotia! Hark from Erin's verdant strand! Patriot voices, strong and earnest, Mingling in a just demand Prohibition Echoes loud from land to land! Chorus—Prohibition! sound the war-note Of our nation's liberty, Sound the note that yet shall free her From the traffic's slavery! Prohibition Let our noble watchword be!

Lift on high our Temperance banners That have braved the light of day, On their pure and honored folds, Write, in flashing lines of gold, Prohibition! Let the cry be onward rolled! Chorus—Prohibition! sound the war-note, etc. Come ye men of love and mercy, Join the philanthropic cry; Free the sad and helpless thousands Drink hath cursed and doomed to die Prohibition Snaps the bands of misery! Chorus—Prohibition! sound the war-note, etc.

Hail auspicious dawn that heralds Yonder brighter, happier day, When, in triumph grand and glorious, We shall chant the joyful lay Prohibition! Britain's curse is swept away!

BITS OF TINSEL.

Teacher—"What part of speech is the word egg?" Boy—"Noun, sir." "What is its gender?" "Can't tell, sir, till it's hatched." "Well, then, my lad, you can tell me the case?" "Oh, yes, the shell, sir." Mr. R. A. Harrison, Chemist and Druggist, Dunstable, writes: "I can with confidence recommend Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Flatulency, Bile, Biliousness, and Constipation. I have cases having come under my personal observation."

A clergyman with quite a family of children has trained them in the habit of assisting one another at table—one child, for instance, having charge of one thing, and another of another thing. One evening the clergyman was entertaining a brother of the cloth. In casting his eyes down the table he noticed that his guest was without a biscuit. "Why, Harold, my boy, you have not passed the biscuits to Dr. Holmes." "Father," said the tiny Harold, speaking with great solemnity, "Dr. Holmes has already had three biscuits."

Worms cause feverishness, moaning and restlessness during sleep. Mother Gray's Kidney Pills is pleasant, sure, and effectual. If your druggist has none in stock, get him to procure it for you.

"I say, Bobby," said Featherly, "did you hear your sister say if she enjoyed the exhibition we gave last night?" "She was pleased with your part of it, Mr. Featherly. She told me that you made a perfect exhibition of yourself."

Is there anything more annoying than having your corn nipped upon? Is there anything more delightful than getting rid of it? Hollis' Corn Cure will do it. Try it and be convinced.

Irish photographer (to sister) "You're sure the position you occupy now is the one you want?" Sister: "Yes, positive." Photographer: "Just to make doubly sure, won't you come here and look in the camera and see?" N. Y. Witness.

These intolerably painful and constantly harassing things called piles, which trouble so many people, are soon healed by Dr. Thomas' Pile Cure. It is the great external remedy for physical suffering and means of relieving pain. A very small quantity achieves results of the most gratifying kind.

A scuffle lately took place between some Irish labourers on a bridge, and a battle ensuing, one of them was very neatly turned over the parapet, and while he was tumbling in the water, loudly exclaimed to his opponent, "Och, you spalpeen, come and hit me now if you dare!"

C. C. Jacobs, Buffalo, an employee of the U. S. Express Co., says: "Dr. Thomas' Eucalypti Oil cured me of a bad case of rheumatism, and I have since had almost every kind of rheumatism, but it never troubles me again. It cures two Buffalo physicians, without relief, but the oil cured him, he thinks it cannot be recommended too highly."

In the chemical laboratory—"Professor, what has become of Tom Appleton?" "Wasn't he studying with the class last year?" "Ah, yes, Appleton, poor fellow! A fine student, but absent-minded on the use of chemicals—very. That discolored on the ceiling. Notice it." "Yes." "That's him."

Furred Tongue and Impure Breath are two concomitants of biliousness remedied by Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. Heartburn, which harasses the dyspeptic after meals, and all the perplexing and changeful symptoms of this distressing indigestion, are dispersed by this salutary corrective tonic and celebrated blood purifier.

Mr. Emmons—"He's no better, doctor. You told me to give him as much of the powder as would lay on his nose, I hadn't a sixpence, but I gave him as much as would lay on five pennies and two half pennies, and it's done him no good, at all, at all."

THE TORONTO SCHOOL JOURNAL is a highly creditable fortnightly periodical, edited by a committee of boys who are pupils in the Toronto City Schools. The young gentlemen who are pushing this enterprise are to be commended. In great shape. G. W. Day, 213 Water Street, is the editor-in-chief, and E. Lawson, sub-editor. It is published at 213 Water Street, in the business office of E. G. Whitman, secretary, and W. H. Caldwell, treasurer. Subscription 25cts per annum. We strongly recommend all interested in public school work to give it their support. If we were to make any suggestion to our young friends who are running the Journal, it would be that if the unattractive and undignified personalities in which such periodicals sometimes indulge were entirely left out, their paper would be still finer in tone and would be none the less interesting and attractive.
