

The Right College for your Daughter

GIVE a few moments thought to what college life and education mean to your daughter. It is not enough that she be well instructed, she should have also a good school-home during the most important character-forming period of her education.

Alma (Ladies) College

is a delightful Christian Home as well as an educational institution of recognised merit. Moral and physical training are combined with intellectual development. Buildings and equipment are an endowment representing $150,000 given.
