

Table of Contents

| | page |
|---|-------------|
| Executive summary | 3 |
| PART ONE: BACKGROUND AND METHODOLOGY | |
| Introduction | 6 |
| Objectives | 6 |
| The economic importance of international education | 7 |
| Canada and Australia as international Education suppliers | 9 |
| A comparison of Canadian and Australian education systems | 10 |
| Recent reforms to the Canadian and Australian education systems | 11 |
| Enrolment of international students | 13 |
| National marketing efforts | 15 |
| A comparison of Canada's and Australia's competitiveness | 18 |
| The longer term outlook for Canada and Australia | 21 |
| Size and nature of the Australian education market | 23 |
| Opportunities for Australia in the Canadian market | 27 |
| Study methodology | 29 |
| PART TWO: THE AUSTRALIAN PERSPECTIVE | |
| General | 31 |
| Joint Promotion and Marketing | 31 |
| Study Abroad Programs | 34 |
| Joint Courses and Programs | 35 |
| Offshore Teaching Programs | 38 |
| Project Work | 39 |
| The CANZIEG Concept | 40 |
| Discussions with the AIEF and IDP Ltd | 40 |
| PART THREE: THE CANADIAN PERSPECTIVE | |
| General | 43 |
| Joint Promotion and Marketing | 43 |
| Study Abroad Programs | 46 |
| Joint Courses and Programs | 48 |
| Offshore Teaching Programs | 50 |
| Project Work | 52 |
| The CANZIEG Concept | 54 |
| PART FOUR: THE STUDENT PERSPECTIVE | |
| Introduction | 57 |
| Focus group discussions | 57 |
| Student Survey | 60 |
| PART FIVE: THE POLICY IMPLICATIONS | |
| Introduction | 65 |
| Compete or Collaborate ? | 65 |
| Future action required | 67 |
| References | 68 |