

PROTOCOL EXTENDING THE PERIOD OF THE AGREEMENT ON NORTH ATLANTIC OCEAN WEATHER STATIONS SIGNED IN LONDON ON 12 MAY 1949.

Whereas the Council of the International Civil Aviation Organization recommended, on 7 December 1951, to the Governments signatory of the Agreement on North Atlantic Ocean Weather Stations signed at London on 12 May 1949

- (a) that the conference to be convened by the Council not later than 1 October 1952, pursuant to Article XVII(2) of the said Agreement, to consider the revision and renewal of the Agreement, be postponed for a period of approximately one year;
- (b) that, consequently, the operation of the North Atlantic Ocean Weather Stations, in accordance with the terms of the said Agreement be extended for a period of one year; and

Whereas all the signatory Governments have notified their concurrence in the above mentioned Council's recommendations;

The undersigned representatives, appointed by their Governments for this purpose, Have Agreed As Follows:

ARTICLE 1

The Agreement on North Atlantic Ocean Weather Stations signed at London on 12 May 1949, which, pursuant to Article XVII(1) of the said Agreement, should have been terminated on 30 June 1953, shall remain in effect until 30 June 1954.

ARTICLE 2

The Council shall convene, not later than 1 October 1953, the Conference which would have been convened pursuant to Article XVII(2) of the Agreement, not later than 1 October 1952, for the purpose of considering the revision and renewal of the said Agreement.

ARTICLE 3

This Protocol shall come into force on the date of its signature.
