

- Both countries are active in promoting cultural diversity internationally and in fostering awareness in major international forums.