

STANDING ORDER 110

The present standing order 110 reads as follows:

(1) All private bills reported to the House by any committee may, on one motion, be referred together to a committee of the whole House and such committee may consider and report one or more such bills at the same sitting.

Bills referred together.

(2) In the event of the expiry of the hour for private bills, the chairman will, on rising, report to the House such bills as have been disposed of by the committee, and the bill under discussion at the expiry of the hour shall retain its place on the order paper for the next sitting.

The amendment to section 1 of the present standing order is intended to remove any doubt in respect of private bills reported by more than one standing committee.

Under the terms of standing order 19 (2), as amended, it is proposed that after the consideration of any bill in the name of a private member has been interrupted or adjourned, the said bill shall be placed at the foot of the heading "private bills".

STANDING ORDER 112

The present standing order 112 reads as follows:

The Chairman of the committee shall sign with his name at length a printed copy of the bill, and shall also sign with the initials of his name, the preamble and the various sections of the bill as they are agreed to, and also any amendments which may be made or clauses added in committee; and another copy of the bill with the amendments (if any) written thereon shall be prepared by the clerk of the committee, who shall sign the bill with his name at length and shall also sign with the initials of his name the preamble and the various sections adopted by the committee, and any amendments which may have been made thereto, and shall file the same with the Clerk of the House or attach it to the report of the committee.

be signed.

It is recommended that the words "as they are agreed to" be deleted from the present order, but no change in practice is being proposed.
