

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Summary of Conclusions and Recommendations	xi
Acknowledgements	xxi
Introduction to the Report	xxiii

PART I: MANPOWER POLICY AND PROBLEMS IN CANADA

Chapter 1: An Infinitely Flexible and Serviceable Instrument: The Objectives of Manpower Policy in 1975	3
Growing Importance of Equity	5
Assistance to the Disadvantaged	6
Chapter 2: A Public Employment Service in an Evolving Work Environment	11

PART II: MATCHING JOB SEEKERS AND JOBS: THE PLACEMENT FUNCTION

Chapter 3: The Formidable Task: An Introduction to Canada Manpower's Placement Services	17
Chapter 4: The Canada Manpower Centre	21
The Job Description	21
The Job Information Centre	23
The Canada Manpower Counsellor—Duties and Qualifications	26
Computerization—A Solution to the Problem of the Urban CMC	30
A Community Role for the CMC?	32
Chapter 5: The Job Seeker and the CMC	35
Are Canada Manpower Centres Employee Oriented?	35
Priority in Referral	36
Counsellor Contact	37
A Facility for Complaint	38
Chapter 6: Subsidiary Placement Programs for Job Seekers	41
Creative Job Search Technique	42
Canada Manpower Mobility Program	42
Programs for Job Seekers Needing Special Assistance	44
Special Job Finding and Placement Drive	45
Outreach	46
Concluding Comment	48