

2d. If one Bishop is constrained to withdraw from the Society, and, not one but, many hesitate to join or support it, and your own Clergy, influenced by these and other reasons, all reject it; you, as Churchmen and friends of the Church, must reflect on a pause; especially when you have another Society long established, among you, pursuing the same object, sanctioned and supported by your own Bishop and Clergy, and by nearly all the Bishops and Clergy of the Church of England.

Commending these remarks to your charitable and prayerful consideration,

I am, Friends and Brethren,

Your affectionate Pastor,

And servant for JESUS' sake,

EDWARD NEWFOUNDLAND

St. John's, June, 1846.
