

PAGE		PAGE
58	Stafford, Captain of Privateer Dolphin, Character of	130
390	State of Affairs in France, Unsettled	183-185
354	Surprise, Privateer, Successful cruise of	294
208	List of Prizes made by	294
34	Captures East India Ship Star,	326
370	Symmetry, British Ship, captured by the Scourge,	223
370	Syren, Privateer, Loss of	307
s, and great
273-5	Table of Privateers belonging to Baltimore,	52
377	Table of Privateers belonging to New York,	4
the defence	Table of Privateers belonging to Salem,	153
378	Terrible Gale in the Bay of Biscay,	182
383-384	The Privateer Sabine, of Baltimore, captures the British Ship Countess of
75	Harcourt,	246
176	The Privateer Harpy, of Baltimore, captures the British Packet Princess
336	Elizabeth,	245
h Frigate, 107-9	The Grand Turk captures the Indian Lass, and sends her to Salem,	235
76	The Privateers Yankee and Blockade sail from Newport on the 1st of June,
31-34	1813,	144
466	The Privateer Caroline, of Baltimore, captures the British Brig Elizabeth, and
Prizes, 84-87	sends her to Charleston,	245
86	The Privateer Portsmouth captures the Ship James, of London,	298
221	The Saucy Jack captures the Ship Pelham, and takes her into Charles-
387	ton,	233
58	Treaty of Peace,	401-414
150	True-blooded Yankee, Privateer, captures British Ship Industry; sent to Nor-
307	way,	149
70	Sails from Brest, on the 24th of November, 1814, on a cruise in the
127	British Channel,	303
146	Thirty-seven days at sea, Interesting and successful cruise of	168-169
310
310	Unfortunate attempt of the Second-Lieutenant of the Leo to escape from
311	Gibraltar,	292
59	United States Government, Embargo by	5
219-225	United States, Frigate, and British Frigate Macedonian, Battle between	72-75
3
62, 63	Visit of Geo. Coggeshall to Bordeaux and Paris,	208-210
140-143	Voyage to France in Letter-of-Marque Schooner David Porter, Geo. Cogges-
with General	hall, Commander; loads at Providence, Rhode Island,	177
343-348
en on shore, 304	War, Preparation for	2
July, 1812, 38	Warrior, Privateer Brig, escapes from a British Frigate and a Man-of-War,	385
2	Warrior, Privateer, Amazing chase of, by British Frigate,	328
127	Wasp, Privateer, captured by the Bream,	126
eshall, 276	Wasp, Successful cruise of	214-215
128	Captures Sloops-of-War Reindeer and Avon,	214
154	Whiting, British Schooner, Capture of	37