

- 114, 116, 123, 124-5, 128-9, 133, 134-5.
- Potawatomis, the, 12, 34, 39, 46, 62-3, 67, 71-2, 113-14.
- Potier, Father Pierre, at Fort Detroit, 27, 36, 40, 50.
- Price, Ensign George, escapes from Fort Le Bœuf to Fort Pitt, 85.
- Reaume, Pierre, French settler at Detroit, 60.
- Rogers, Major Robert, takes over French forts after the Conquest, 20-4, 38; with Dalryell at Bloody Run, 63-7.
- Rogers's Rangers, 20, 63, 66.
- Royal Americans, 28, 95, 100-101, 103-5.
- Sacs, the, 13, 80-1.
- Saint-Ange, French commandant of Fort Chartres, 131, 134.
- St Martin, interpreter of the Ottawas, 27, 64.
- Schlosser, Ensign Francis, commandant of Fort St Joseph, 71-2.
- Senecas, their hostility to the British, 9, 14, 15-16, 17, 24, 26, 27, 32; their cruelty at Fort Venango, 86; at Devil's Hole, 109-12; make peace, 123.
- Shawnees, the, 14, 24, 29, 94, 123, 125, 126, 128-9.
- Sicotte, Zacharie, a French settler at Detroit, 59, 60.
- Six Nations, 3; British allies, 8, 9-10, 16, 122-3.
- Stedman, Philip, escapes at Devil's Hole massacre, 111.
- Sterling, Captain Thomas, takes over Fort Chartres, 133.
- Thirteen Colonies, and the Conquest, 1-2; their policy towards and relations with the Indians, 2-3, 5, 26, 34, 41, 96, 106; and the American Revolution, 137-8.
- Turnbull, Mrs, and her sons, slaughter of, 47.
- Turtle's Heart, a Delaware chief, 91-2.
- Vincennes, a French post, 2, 132.
- Virginia, and the Indians, 106. See Thirteen Colonies.
- Weas, the, 75-6.
- Welsh, John, tortured to death, 74.
- Wilkins, Major, 112, 113; his disaster on Lake Erie, 117-19.
- Wyandots, the, 13-14, 21-2, 24, 27, 34, 38-9, 46, 50, 55, 62-63, 67, 68, 83-4, 94, 114.