Burchall and Cole

For Motordrome

Biount Burchail of Atlanta, Ga., who is heralded as a real wonder, is lue to arrive at the Motordrome today, and will start in the half-hour race. He is bringing with him his own machine, and Carslake and Leonard will have to watch the newcomer closely. This thirty-mir ute race should be a hummer and some new distance records should be hung up. The motorcycle program also contains several sprint events, and Cole, if he decides to return to the game again, will have some fun trying to beat his old fival, Baribeau, who is coming like a house afire. If Cole decides to ride again it will please a great many of the local fans, as he is considered the equal of any of them when right. Spencer and Doc Morton should cause a furore when they come together in the blcycle sprint race.

BRITISH RUGBY. The presentation of the Lochrie Cup to the West of England British Rugby team will be made tonight. Mr. Lochrie, the donor, will present the trophy on the stage of the Park Theatre at 8.45. All the team are requested to be on hand at the theatre not later than 8.15, and it is borred, they many friends of

Donald McDonald Wins Sixth at Belmont Park

BELMONT PARK, June 12.—The first and third events won by a nose, the second by a head and the fifth by a neck, which was stretched in front so late in the struggle that half the crowd thought the contender had won, tells the tale of a thrilling spell of sport at Belmont Park this afternoon. Even in the Floral Park Handicap, which was the feature of the card, there was hope until the last few strikes that August Belmont's three-year-old Stromboli would accomplish the task of giving away weight to every horse in the race. As it was he had to bow before Hester Prynne, which was in receipts 24 pounds from the Belmont crack. Summary:
