"One of the best stories that has come from the presses in the last six months. The plot is novel, the central idea clear, and the incidents are worked out with a degree of skill and good taste that are eminently satisfactory. Its quiet humor is one of its best qualities."—The Brooklyn Eagle.

"No such piece of inimitable comedy, in a literary way, has appeared for years. . . . It is the purest, keenest fun."

—Inter-Ocean, Chicago.

"This is a delightfully entertaining novel, and it is seldom that one of such masterly qualities, by a new author, wins its way to public favor as this is sure to do."—Boston Courier.

"It is an extremely clever piece of work that is likely to be as popular as it deserves."—Boston Transcript.

"'The Celebrity' is an admirable novel, ingeniously conceived, and brightly written. The plot is handled with great ingenuity, and it is more than usually interesting and it artistically leads up to an unexpected climax that is most elaborately prepared for. The characters are all firmly outlined and they seem to be studies from life. We cordially commend this very bright and entertaining novel; it is the work of a sound and original artist."

—Boston Saturday Evening Gazette.

"A novel of undoubted strength and originality. There is a vein of humor and a tone of romance in it and it is fascinating from beginning to end."—Rochester Democrat.
