

and Democrats, the first forms the most numerous and soundest part of the population (by far); the Federalists are a party clinging to titles, crowns, mitres, distinctions and aristocracy, exalting the few and humiliating the million:---the Democrats are a few only and of no consequence, a party, I was informed in America, who were jealous of rule and power, and could dispense with all moral organization. The Federalists during the late war opposed the government in the most unnatural and treasonable manner, even preventing in the Eastern States the raising of loans, such was the case untill an event took place which reconciled all parties, the destruction of Washington by the British Forces: "John Bull" was pleased because he fancied a victory, and Jonathan was pleased because such event wounded the national honor; after that I am confident no European force could have conquered America, and if she steers clear of faction and its destructive coadjutors, if no such contravention takes place, in all human probability, at some period, she must in a great measure, dictate to the world, as it is natural to suppose, the two Republics of North and South America, swayed and actuated by laws and energies the same, and as it were created of the same materials, no jealousies can exist, as no extent of empire on either side can be desired, as they divide nearly a third part of the habitable globe, and as their frontier extends nearly 10,000 miles, ordinary mathematicians may form a kind of guess what numbers would be requisite to attempt an invasion, equally as feasible
