

Illustrated School History of the United States,

From the Earliest Discoveries to the Present Time; embracing a Full Account of the Aborigines, Biographical Notices of Distinguished Men, and numerous Maps, Plans of Battle-Fields, and Pictorial Illustrations. 12mo, 538 pages.

By G. P. QUACKENBOS, LL. D.

The author has aimed to be simple, that youth of lower as well as of advanced classes may understand him; clear, that no indistinct or erroneous impressions may be conveyed; accurate in the recital of facts; and interesting as regards both matter and style. Avoiding fragmentary statements, he has gone into detail sufficiently to show events in their connections, convinced that a fairer idea of them is thus imparted, and that facts otherwise dry may in this way be made attractive and indelibly impressed on the mind. He has tried throughout to be fair and national. He has neither introduced offensive allusions, nor invidiously attempted to bias the minds of the young on controverted questions connected with politics or religion.

The pronunciation of all difficult and foreign names is given in brackets; and appropriate illustrations have been liberally provided. Maps are as useful in history as in geography, and plans are often essential to the lucid delineation of military movements. Both are here presented wherever it was thought they would be of service.

In elegance of style, accuracy, clearness, interest of narrative, richness of illustration, and adaptation to the school-room, this History is pronounced far in advance of every similar work heretofore published.

From PROF. H. D. LATHROP, Gambier, Ohio.

"It seems to me admirably adapted to the purpose intended. The style is simple and attractive, the narrative accurate and sufficiently minute, the illustrations appropriate and elegant, and the typographical execution all that could be desired."

From HON. JOHN SWETT, Supt. of Schools for the State of California.

"Quackenbos's History of the United States is admirably adapted to meet the wants of our Public Schools."

From DAVID Y. SHAUB, Millerstown, Pa.

"I have now introduced Quackenbos's Illustrated School History of the United States in nearly all the Public Schools over which our Institute has authority. All the teachers give it the highest testimony, and it has been Resolved, That it is the BEST School History extant."

From W. O. GOODLOE, Principal of Morton School, Lexington, Ky.

"I think Prof. Quackenbos has succeeded in making the BEST History for schools I ever saw, and I have seen a good many."

From F. S. BELDEN, Principal of Academy, Pawtucket, R. I.

"I have introduced it into my School, and I know of no other its equal."
