

privilege of proposing, electing and initiating a person on the same evening, who is known to be worthy, shall be one shilling and three pence, in addition to the fee otherwise required.

VI.

All sums of money directed to be paid by vote of the Grand Division, shall be drawn from the Treasury by a draft on the G. T., signed by the G. W. P. and G. S., which draft held by him, the said G. T., shall always be a sufficient voucher for the payment made.

VII.

All petitions, complaints and appeals, from any person or persons, except verbal appeals from the decision of the presiding officer, on points of order, shall be presented in writing to the Grand Division, and shall be preserved on file, and not recorded in full on the records of the Grand Division, unless by special order on the subject.

VIII.

At every meeting of the Grand Division, the G. S. shall make minutes of all the proceedings, on loose paper, or in a minute book, and at each meeting, the minutes of the last preceding session shall be read, corrected if needful, and approved; after which approval, and not before, they shall be made a matter of record in the Book of Records, by the G. S.

IX.

The regalia and emblems appointed for the Grand Officers of the G. D. shall be purchased from time to time as occasion may require, and owned by the G. D., but every other member of the G. D. shall procure his own appointed clothing as a Son of Temperance; and without being properly clothed according to the established regulations of the Order, no brother shall take part in the business of the Division.
