

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS.

| THE AUTHOR . . . . .                                                                                  | Frontispiece |             |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------|-------------|
|                                                                                                       |                     | FACING PAGE |
| Members of the Staff outside the headquarters of the1st Cavalry Division . . . . .                |                     | 8           |
| Between Philosophe and Vermelles; on the left, thechâteau wall . . . . .                          |                     | 9           |
| A bird's-eye view of shattered Vermelles, January, 1915 . . . . .                                     |                     | 28          |
| Major Desmond Fitzgerald of the Lancers and a gas-pipetrench-mortar . . . . .                     |                     | 29          |
| A Winter Cavalry shelter in France . . . . .                                                          |                     | 32          |
| Construction of Cavalry shelter in France . . . . .                                                   |                     | 33          |
| The Rue de Menin in March 1915, looking west over theMenin Bridge across the canal moat . . . . . |                     | 54          |
| Officers under the stone lion on the Menin Bridge atYpres . . . . .                               |                     | 55          |
| The Grande Place at Ypres and the Cloth Hall, March,1915 . . . . .                                |                     | 66          |
| The Choir of the ruined Ypres Cathedral . . . . .                                                     |                     | 67          |
| Scenes of battle of olden time in colours on the shatteredwalls of Ypres Cloth Hall . . . . .     |                     | 70          |
| A communication trench leading to the front line positionin the Sanctuary Wood . . . . .          |                     | 71          |
| Officers of Lancers in their dug-outs in the front linetrenches . . . . .                         |                     | 86          |
| A dug-out in front of Zillebeke . . . . .                                                             |                     | 87          |
| The Zillebeke Church, March 1915 . . . . .                                                            |                     | 92          |
| German prisoners in Ypres, captured after the explosionof a British mine near Hooge . . . . .     |                     | 93          |
| Damage caused by a 17-inch shell in Poperinghe, April,1915 . . . . .                              |                     | 150         |