Reduction of the number of called balls

Reduction of the number of called balls entitling a batsman to first base from four balls to three, and a revival of the earned run are among the changes being standing as a partial means of determining the relative standing of pitchers in the American League, is practically assured. Whether or not it is brought back to life in the National and other organizations, the officials of the American League will make the revival, and can do so single-handed, because it is a matter affecting the official scoring and tabulation of pitchers' records, but not the playing rules. The reduction of the amount of waiting a batsman w'll have to do to get a base on balls is a different proposition, in which it will require concurrent action by both major leagues.

When one contemplates the amount paid for a batch of yearlings by Diamond Jubilee, which were sold at Buenos Aires recently, it is only natural to reflect on the luck of the game. It was a very near thing once as to whither Diamend Jubilee should be turned into a gelding or not, the discovery that he would run generously for his stable lad, Herbert Jones, saving the situation, and incidentally making the latter's reputation as a jockey. But for this, Diamond Jubilee would not have passed into the possession of Senor Ignacio Correas for $150,000. As twelve coits and twelve fillies by the sire named fetched $11,500 at the sale referred to, Senor Correas will soon get his outlay back.

The greatest of a ll the so-called Maratha runners will have little or no opportunity to reap the financial benefit that should ave been his because of his wonderful ability as a runner at a distance over twenty miles. Henri Siret is at present serving his compulsory military duty in the French army and by the time that he leaves the service the Marathon craze, which is barely ga sping at present, will have passed into oblivion and fifteen miles will be the limit for distance contests. Siret we not professional Marathon race in England two years ago.

Death of Bob Pettit.

DERBY, Conn. Nov. 2.—Robert Pettit, a former National League baseball player, is dead at his home here. Pettit was 48 years old, and leaves a wife and one child. He joined the Nationals in 1882, being brought out by Pop Anson, and played with that team for several years, making the trip around the world with it in 1888. After leaving the major league, he played in a number of minor league, including, for a short time, the Connecticut State League his whole career in baseball comprising about twenty-nine years.

There have been stories galore of a In spite of the raw, chilly winds yes-tew arena and hockey rink for Toronto, terday afternoon, a fair-sized crowd went even before Mr. Palmer purchased the to Varsity Athletic Field to See Junior Mutual-street property from the old Caledonian Curling and Skating Clubbut nothing came of any all proving more or less rumors of the street. Now with a new structure. Of the kind almost in sight, there has been nothing given out, and building material is already on the ground.

This will be the last season in the present mutual-street Rink, which will be demolished in the spring, the site of which will hold the north end of the new arena.

A considerable portion of the structural steel is already on the ground, as anyone may see for himself by a look on Dalhousie-street, on the west of the property.

The new arena will be ready one year hence, and will run north and south, with an entrance of 50 feet from Shuter-street, midway between Mutual and Dalhousie-streets.

Manager Alex Miln returned from New York on Monday with plans for the new arena, which calls for an ice space of 80x200 feet. The building will be modern in every detail, with refrigerator plant the latest heated rooms and seating accommodation.

MONTREAL, Nov. 2.—Unless Brophy is able to take his place in the back field there will be no changes on the Montreal team to meet Hamilton Tigers in Hamilton on Saturday. It is not likely that the vill be able to play. His leg is still very stiff and sore and altho he is not compelled to lie up with the play footal! until the game with Clatwa here a week from Saturday. Laid-law law will fill his place at left inside wing again if he cannot go to Hamilton. There is more than a chauce that Brophy will be able to figure on the line-up in Hamilton. He was out to-day kicking the ball around. His ankle is still a bit stiff, but unless he meets with a further mishap in practice he will be available for Saturday's team. Just what change may follow in the back division will not be known until after to-morrow's practice.

It is the opinion of the Tiger rooters who have seen all the games played in the Big Four this year that Montreal is the strongest squad of the lot outside of the Tigers. There can be little doubt about this. The Argos and Ottawa do not stand up as well in comparison, individually or team, and this augurs well for the class of exhibition that will be given on Saturday.

Kew Beach will practice to-night in Kew Gardens at 7.45 sharp. All trying for place in Saturday's game must at-tend, as the team will be picked.

Capitals will hold their final practice to-night in preparation for their game with Parkdale Juniors on Saturday a fternoon. The following players will please attend: Adams, Whale, Ellicott, Medcalf, Newton, Glaze, Graham, Morrison, Ford, Holden, Marsden, Rirk, Grimshaw, Fulford, Currie, Treleaven.

HIS is a season when men should not be satisfied with anything commonplace, either in Suitings or Overcoatings. There never have been such beautiful fabrics, both as regards qualities and color harmonies. Even the very plain effects have a subtle fascination. There is an immense stock here in all the best weaves, from the great wills from the great mills.

At $25.00, for either Suit or Overcoat, you get something out of the ordinary. We're more than usually proud of the workmanship, the tailoring, the style, and fit. You can have any of the new Fall and Winter models to your measure. We have our own fashion-plates, with between thirty and forty different style creations. You may select from Overcoatings in Scotch Cheviots, in hundreds of fancy color effects; Beavercloths in the new browns, tans, olives, greys, and blacks; Meltons in new color effects; Black and Grey Oxford Tweeds, Irish Friezes.
