Moderate Rallies Occur in Speculative Shares—C.P.R. Reported Under Pool Manipulation.

World Office, Tuesday Evening, Oct. 10.

The tone of the local stock market was well preserved to-day, but there was a slight dip in operations, this being particularly the case during the afternoon hours. Prices showed small rallies from yesterday's low prices, but in no instance except C.P.R. did these exceed half a point. The dip was taken local, but was not confined to New York was made as an influence on Toronto's operations, but was not confined to New York's operations were large, and it was reported that the pool sent in orders at the close to pay as high as possible. FRUIT MARKET.
 Deliveries of Canadian fruit continue very heavy for this season of the year. Peaches are perceptibly falling away in quantity, but the supply is ample for all demands. Yesterday's arrivals on the Lake-Canada and Toronto markets for some days past. The range in quality and price is also very great, running from 74c to 1.25 per bushel.

ST. LAWRENCE MARKET.
 Business on the St. Lawrence market yesterday was quiet. Receipts were less than ordinary, but there was a good crop of apples, and a fair quantity of pears. About 100 bushels of what was offered for sale, together with 100 bushels of pears, and 100 bushels of apples. All grades are well maintained.
