THE TRAGEDY OF COLOR

Harper's Weekly Whatever America has to show in heroic living to-day, I doubt if she can show anything finer than the quality of the resolve, the steadfast effort hundreds of black and colored men are making to-day to live blamelessly, honorably and patiently, getting for themselves what scraps of refinement, learning and beauty they may, keeping their hold on civilization they are grudged and denied. They do it not for themselves, but for all their race. Each educated colored man is an ambassador to civilization. They know they have a handicap, that they are exceptionally brilliant or clever Yet every such man stands, people. Election of Findlay Would Mean That Parks Would Be Sacrificed to Cataract Co.

Hamilton, Dec. 27 .- (Special.) - Mayor Biggar, who will retire from the chair at the end of the aldermanic year, gave a dinner this evening at the Hamilton Club, to the aldermen and the city official. It was a very pleasant function. Ald. Stewart and Findlay occupied the seats of honor on either side of his worship and Ald. Eastwood was in the vice-chair. There was the usual toast list, and more than the usual number of nice things were said

The election of Ald. Findlay as mayor of the city would mean that the parks would be sacrificed to the Cataract power people's railway. The parks board is the only body outside of Ald.
