WHAT MR. TARTE SAYS.

Mr. Tarte states that when Mr. Grenier published the first issue of his paper he went to Ottawa with a number of copies and offered to make it Mr. Tarte's special organ, Mr. Beausolell to be the main object of the proposed attacks. He said that, although Governments did not care for avowed official organs, still it was useful for individual Ministers to have a journal at their disposal. He then wanted a cash account of $200, and, that being refused, he said that he must get a hundred doi luis. Not getting what he wanted, he returned to Montreal and sent a telegram to Mr. Tarte renewing his demand. That despatch remained unanswered and Mr. Grenier again went up to Ottawa, where he called at the Department of Public Works, but was not received by Mr. Tarte. At midnight he managed to see the Minister at his hotel, where finally Mr. Tarte told him that he did not want to be bothered any more. Again, coming back to Montreal, Mr. Grenier tried to get money from Mr. Taute's son, and finally he commenced his present campaign.

Mr. Grant's Explanation.

An item which appeared in Monday's World regarding the Hamilton sewer pipe contract is dealed by Mr. Grant of W. F. Grant & Co., Toronto, although he practically admits that the article is in the main correct, but is calculated to give a wrong impression, which Mr. Grant considers it does. He says: "The contract was awarded to W. F. Grant & Co., and the Hamilton and Toronto Sewer Pipe Co. were sub-contractors. We claim that their account was paid before it was due. We absolutely deay owing the Hamilton Sewer Pipe Co. any money. We have paid them according to their agreement and contract, in advance."

Mr. Grant admitted that the claim apparently referred to was only settled by cheque sent after the item appeared in the paper. Even then, he says, the money was paid before it was due. He considers that the grately was the outcome of the paper. Even then, he says, the money was paid before it was due. He considers that the grately was the outcome of the public demonstrations which were being arranged by the Ammesty Committee to raise funds for Gallagher and White-head, the dynamiters recently released from Portiand Prison, England. The Political Prisoners' Fund Association will go ahead on its own account with preparations for a demonstration on Nov. 22 next.

BOUSTEAD INQUISITIVE.

Ald. Boustead was in an inquisitive mood and wanted to know whether the northern half of the Queen's Park had not been starved for the benefit of the chalrman's pet hobby—Island Park, and the Exhibition grounds, He did not suppose that the commissioner was responsible, as nothing could be done by him without the chairman's approval. He would like to know the chairman's opinion upon the question of extravagant expenditure at the Exhibition grounds especially.

The chairman, after due deliberation, expressed the opinion that perhaps a few of the flower beds might have been dispensed with, but rather thought that on the whole there was no fault to be found.
