TWENTY-FIRST YEAR

SOME CAPTURERS OF CRONJE BACK FROM THE BATTLEFIELD

Pte. Fred Iglestrom of the Queen's Own "C" Company Safety Home—Seven of the Invalided Soldiers Here Yesterday.

The first detachment of invalided South African heroes arrived in town yesterday morning, sunburned and hearty-looking, from their South African campaign. Only one, Pte. Fred Iglestrom of "C" company, O.R. lives here, at the Corp. F. Norman, who whose home is in Ottawa, has been attending Medical School in the city, and is pretty well known. The others who came to Toronto and left for their homes last of the week were: Pte. J. H. Sutton, 2nd Regiment, Hamilton; Pte. J. W. Cartwright, 2nd Dragoons, St. Catharines; Pte. Victor T. Manette, 21st Fusiliers, Windsor; Pte. George J. Graham, St. Mary's; John R. Ray, Rocky Mountain Rangers, Victoria, B.C.

No organized reception was given to the boys on their arrival, partly because fewer knew they were coming, and the boys themselves, as modest as they are brave, preferred to have no demonstration. Nevertheless a good-sized group of their friends were on hand when the C.P.R. train pulled into the depot at 7:35 o'clock, and they were given a hearty reception.

Fred Iglestrom, Corp. J. H. Sutton and Norman Ray were members of "C" company of the Royal Canadian Regiment. The latter is a son of Dr. Ray, a well-known physician of Oshawa. Corp. Ray returned home with a brother on the 5 o'clock train for the east.

No Boisterous Demonstration. Mr. Iglestrom was cordially greeted by many friends and acquaintances, but the feeling was rather that of joy at his safe return than of boisterous demonstration. The widespread nature of this feeling was shown by the generous display of flags and bunting in the neighborhood of Ontario and Wellesley streets, near his home at 618 Union.

A CHEERING CROP REPORT

Weather Could Not Have Been Better Than It Has Been in Manitoba for Two Weeks.

A ROAST ON THE POLITICIANS.

Frank Oliver's Paper in After Both Parties—Two Cases of Suicide—Winipeg Notes.

Winipeg, July 15.—(Special.)—The Northern Pacific crop report, received today, is more favorable than ever. The weather could not have been better for growing crops than it has been in all parts during the past fortnight. On the Portage branch the wheat yield will run from half a crop to 25 bushels to the acre, and on the main line it will be a good half crop. On the Morris-Brandon branch the predictions are not so confident, and the yield will run from 6 to 12 bushels per acre, with some districts the yield will not be less than 15 bushels per acre. On the Souris River branch the agents predict from 5 to 6 bushels per acre to half a crop.

The coarser grains, as well as the root crops and hay are favorably reported on, but as a rule their yield will be a fair average one in all districts.

Both Parties Roasted. THE POWER OF THE TIENTSIN

More Warships at Shanghai to Protect the Vast Supplies Recently Accumulated There—Chinese Massing Around Pekin.

They Have the Conviction That the Powers Mean War—Further Check of the Allies at Tien Tsin May Mean a General Anti- Foreign Rising.

London, July 17.—(3.55 a.m.)—Up to this hour there has been no further news of reported massacre at Pekin from any source. In the House of Commons last evening, beyond an admission that there was no ground for hoping that the report was not true, Mr. William St. John Brodick, Parliamentary Secretary to the Foreign Office, had nothing to communicate.

An unusual hush fell on the chamber when the subject came up. A few members doffed their hats, but otherwise there was no demonstration. No question was put to Lord Salisbury in the House of Lords, probably by a prearranged arrangement, it being considered that at the present stage of affairs it would be only embarrassing to force the Premier to make a statement.

Telegrams from Shanghai and Chefoo indicated an increasingly serious state of affairs. It is alleged that the foreign consuls at Shanghai have called the Governments that there is urgent need of more warships to protect that port, owing to the menacing attitude of the Chinese and the reputation to loot the vast stores of merchandise recently accumulated there.

The Chinese have already threatened to fire the great oil tanks on the Pao Tung side of the dock at the risk of the lives of the British and other foreign ships.

May Be a General Anti-Foreign Rising. From Chefoo comes the report that the entire native population of the three Provinces of Chihli, Shanai and Shantung are massing to defend Pekin, in the conviction that the powers mean war. There is little doubt that a further check of the allies at Tien Tsin would be the signal for a general anti-foreign rising throughout China.

Impossible Before September. The Japanese officials are still confident of their ability to reach Pekin before the end of the month. The British and other foreign consuls at Shanghai have called the Governments that there is urgent need of more warships to protect that port, owing to the menacing attitude of the Chinese and the reputation to loot the vast stores of merchandise recently accumulated there.

ONE CENT

LEAPED FROM THE G.T.R. BRIDGE INTO THE RAGING NIAGARA

John Delmage, Who Had Led a Roving Life and Acquired the Drink Habit, Put an End to Himself in a Most Tragic Manner Last Evening.

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 15.—John Delmage, one of the many deluded and dissipated men who have been known to leap from the G.T.R. steel arch bridge, at 6:50 o'clock this evening by jumping off the whirlpool side of the carriage road of the G.T.R. steel arch bridge. The unfortunate man, who was about 35 years of age, and unmarried, left home when a lad, and had a roving life and had contracted the habit of drink, working a few months at a time in a place. His work would be as a waiter in concert halls, and had been employed at Sine's Music Hall and Nat Fenton's place in Buffalo several times. He came to the Falls, N.Y., this afternoon, and apparently had been drinking hard.

Asked His Brother for Money. Being without money, he called upon his young brother, George, a clerk in Lynch's shoe store, shortly after 5 o'clock, and asked for ten cents as he was broke. The younger brother told him no, he would only go and drink it. He told him "No, it would be the last ten cents he would ever have to give him, as he intended to jump over the bridge."

The young lad laughed at him, and he went away, supposedly direct to the bridge, but having no money, he could not get to the gate. He told the gate-keeper he did not wish to cross the bridge, he only wanted to go to the centre.

Went and Got the Money. He after being told he could not even do this without paying the ten cents, he went back to his brother's place, and he was given the money.

He dropped feet first, but made two complete turns, then struck the rushing water in a heap with a sickening thud, which was plainly heard by the man on the end of the bridge. His body never rose, and no doubt will never be found, as is the case when suicides jump from the bridge.

A few feet away, directly opposite the main stairs leading off this town, the Miss Julia Maloney of this town, who was nearly overcome by the scene enacted before her very eyes, and says the man turned as he leaped, looked at her and smiled, no doubt at her frightened appearance.

Letters in His Pocket. In his pockets were letters identifying him as John Delmage, and a scrap of paper, on which was written "Dear John—I am coming to see you this afternoon, save me her very eyes, and says the man turned as he leaped, looked at her and smiled, no doubt at her frightened appearance.
