once and had an amiable time. Hand- some George Gooderham, chairman of the board of education, lifted a whip and drove a smart bay in finished style to a second place in class 38. One cannot always be at the head of the poll. All the best known men about town in Toronto were present, and at times the promenade was almost impassable.

At least 2000 people were under the huge roof at 9 o'clock, when the show- event of the day came off. Class 36 for single horses in harness brought out a handsome set of vehicles, rigs, carts and phaetons, and the award of the silver cup was very popular.

Draught Pairs Were Cheered. To many visitors the most interesting entries were in the draught pairs, and those for professional coaches. The single draught animals in the afternoon were a magnificent lot, and the pairs in the evening outstripped them. These entries were near the hearts of the people, too, fellow laborers in the commerce of the great city, and as the great brutes pranced proudly round the arena, cheer after cheer went up from the sympathetic crowd in the east end of the lists.

Then the coachmen came, men bred to the business, who know their horses, and who realize their own short-comings more keenly than can any judge, as all experts can. James Morton, George Gooderham's natty whip, carried off the red rosette, and George scores another first.

Queens of the Night. But what are horses and men—ever at a horse show—beside fair ladies: fair, fairer and fairest, single, married and widows, a most fashionable array. The Horse Show is the first event of the season, and it is not to be wondered at that after the long winter the opportunity for a display of spring fashion was fully taken advantage of.

The admitted belle of the evening was Miss Creighton of Brantford, whose delicate and animated features made even Toronto envious. Miss Creighton wore a lace hat, lined with tiny roses, and a gown of white with muslin sleeves and lace jacket. The lieutenant-governor's party included both Miss and Miss E. Mortimer Clark. All the boxes were occupied, and especially attractive were Mrs. Hallows, Miss Christie, Miss Phyllis Hendrie, Miss Violet Crear, Miss Mackenzie, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Victor Cavithra, Mrs. Fraser Macdonald, Mrs. R. J. Christie (who was exquisitely dressed), Mrs. D. Mann, Miss Muriel Brewick, Mrs. A. P. Burritt, Miss Arnold.

In Passing Mention. The band of the Grenadiers deserves special mention for the tuneful and tasteful music furnished during the day.

The police arrangements were excellent, and none the less so for not being required. Inspector Stephens has the men detailed to look after the show.

A very gratifying feature of this year's show is the increase in attendance of people from outside of Toronto. The railway coupons taken in at the box office yesterday showed the largest railway travel to the show of any previous year, which is a striking proof of the hold of a national reputation which the Canadian Horse Show is obtaining.

The vice-regal party is expected from Ottawa on Friday, and Friday evening promises to provide a social function of exceptional brilliancy.

COME TO CANADA. (Canadian Associated Press Cable.) London, April 28.—The Duke of Argyll, speaking at the Royal Society of Painters in Water Colours banquet, recommended artists to visit Canada, where they would find a most characteristic and varied scenery, and where they would be most appreciated in Canada than in Europe. "We have been apt to slay to adore a picture, simply because it is by an old master."

McHENRY RESIGNS. Montreal, April 27.—Chief Engineer McHenry of the Canadian Pacific Railway has resigned on account of ill-health. Mr. McHenry has been sick for a great while, although his resignation is a surprise. As he said he will be succeeded by Mr. Tytle.

Called a Creditors' Meeting. M. P. McCall, general merchant, of Lion's Head, has called a meeting of his creditors in the office of Asst. Commr. W. G. for Tuesday, May 3rd. His business affairs are understood to show a good surplus, and the meeting is being called for the purpose of seeing if a compromise can be effected. The liabilities total about $10,000 or $11,000.

The insurance companies say they have seldom been presented with a claim so comprehensive, repulsive and unsatisfactory as the one presented to the Commercial Union Limited, with the result that this claim was adjusted without the slightest delay, and the company was complimented upon the splendid presentation of its case. McCall and his friends are understood to be very anxious to see this claim adjusted, and it is due to their efforts.

ALLEGED HOLD-UP VICTIM ARRESTED AS ONE OF GANG

King Believed to Have Lured William—Several Other Arrests Also Made.

The police have lost no time in working on the Williamson hold-up case, which occurred Tuesday night. Percy Ernest King, the young chap who claimed to have been robbed at the same time as Williamson, is now under arrest. King is the man who told the fairy stories about five shining British bulldog revolvers being pushed in his face. Detective Cuddy, who took charge of this case, had his suspicions about King at the time of the arrest of the other fellows. Cuddy watched him all day yesterday. Last night he shadowed King to the Union Station. King purchased a railroad ticket. When asked by the officer where he was going, he said Stratfordville. When Cuddy saw him about a train for Hamilton he arrested him.

When Chief Williams of London heard of Williamson being robbed and that King was in his company he immediately arrested King. The young hold-up man is now being kept in the city lock-up. King claims that he was robbed of $14. The detective department can show that he did not have any money and that he was "all in."

Detectives Cuddy and Black have also arrested Frank Donovan, 6 Bulwer-street; Ben Cohen, 39 Chestnut-street; Izzy Cohen, 138 West Adelaide-street; Mike Tobin, 14 McDonnell-square. The charge against them is vagrancy, but they are all thought to know more or less of the hold-up. King is supposed to have lured Williamson to the spot and the gang did the rest.

TO MAJOR WOOD. (Canadian Associated Press Cable.) London, April 28.—The Morning Post says the appearance of Major Wood's fight for Canada marks an epoch in the evolution of the Canadian school of history. Packman, Kingsford, Bourne and Brindley practically ignored the vast determining force of sea power as the most vital principle in the empire's growth. It was Major Wood who proceeded further in his revision of Canadian military history, and endeavored to date misconceptions. He has already convinced President Roosevelt as to the value of the victories gained on land by Canadian troops in the war of 1812.

ONLY IN MINDS. (Canadian Associated Press Cable.) London, April 28.—Mr. Field, M.P. (Nationalist), asking the chancellor of the exchequer whether a tax on gambling futures would not provide a revenue sufficient to enable him to remove the proposed increased taxation on tea, received the reply that the tax was impossible, for the difference in the two classes of transaction was not their form, but in the minds of the parties concerned.

100 FOR CANADA. (Canadian Associated Press Cable.) London, April 28.—One hundred men left London for Canada last night under the auspices of the Salvation Army, comprising gardeners, laborers and clerks. The single men go to Winnipeg and the married to Toronto.

HORSES BEFORE THE JUDGES FIRST DAY AT ARMORIES

Greatest Improvement Noted in Draughts—Interesting Jumping Events.

The exclusive show of horses demonstrated that man's best friend is a satisfactory attraction himself. The attendance at the armories was ample for a first day. The few in the morning witnessed a splendid spectacle in the open jumping, that brought out a fine field, and all went over the obstacles to 5 feet 6 in. It was the best specimen of jumping that has ever been shown in the history of the show. The English judge, Mr. Spark, put the horses to a thorpe test, and raised the jumps from time to time until the horses got narrowed down to the four winners. Geo. Pepper, now of Boston, landed 1-2 with the gray mare Blue Girl, and the ch. g. Senator, that cleared cleanly at 6 feet.

The attendance was good in the afternoon, when the jumping was for green hunters, conformation and quality counting 50 per cent, and fencing at 4 foot obstacles 40 per cent, the Hamilton candidate, Sir Robert, went handled by his owner, Gordon Hendrie, taking first, closely followed by the Boston and Toronto entries of Geo. Pepper and Crow & Murray.

In the evening the armories had a splendid attendance, when the performance at the obstacles was for the Toronto Hunt Plate, and resulted in a most popular tie-win for the M. F. H. Mr. Beardmore, the Duke's outpacing, and the veteran performer Cuckoo, with Mr. Kilgour's Lady Alta third.

Horses in harness, including small roadsters, were shown during the day. The greatest improvement was to be noticed in the heavy draught horses. In class 31, Mr. Davies won with the team that defeated everything in Chicago. There was not an inferior pair in the eight, and the judges had a most difficult task.

List of Awards.—Wednesday Morning.—Class 32—Jumping, open to all; performance over fences only to count. G. Pepper & Co., Boston, Mass., Blue Girl, g. m., Geo. Pepper & Co., Boston, Mass., Senator, ch. g.; Adam Beck, London, Guardian, ch. g.; Crow & Murray, Toronto, Thistle-down, brn., 4.

NEWFOUNDLAND INDEPENDENT. Col. Kaubach fears the Cold Storage Company.

Ottawa, April 27.—(Staff Special.)—When the Globe's Newfoundland correspondent uncovered the designs of the Newfoundland Storage Co. he placed a load of care on the shoulders of Col. Kaubach, M.P. for Lunenburg, N.S. Col. Kaubach read a portion of the despatch to the house to-day and explained how the operations of the company would operate black ruin among the fishing interests of the Maritime Provinces. There is great danger, he says, that when the company enters upon its vast enterprise there will be no left for Canadian fishermen, and the sturdy men of the Maritime Provinces will be shut out of the fisheries on the Newfoundland Banks.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who admitting the danger and anxious to avert it, could see no way of heading off the company. The two mainstays of the company's operations were Newfoundland land, which grants certain privileges and subsidies; and the United States, which is to receive the company's exports free of duty. Canada had, therefore, no right to interfere.

The discussion grew into imperial proportions. Hon. W. S. Fielding, insisting to the house that if we hope to invade Newfoundland into the glorious confederation we must recognize the fact that the island is just as independent as Canada, and carefully refrain from interfering with its negotiations with the United States.

Col. Kaubach said he regarded the incorporation of the company as an indirect way of accomplishing the object of the Bond-Blaine and Bond-Hay treaties. The effect would be that the company's large operations would give it a monopoly of the bait and the fisheries of the Maritime Provinces would be excluded from the deep sea fisheries on the Newfoundland Banks. It would cripple the fleet of Lunenburg, which is the pride of Lunenburg County.

Dr. Sproule suggested that it was under the treaty of 1812 that the company was organizing its project, not under the Bond-Blaine or the Bond-Hay treaty, neither of which had come into operation.

The prime minister agreed with Dr. Sproule. The Bond-Hay treaty, he said, had been suspended two years ago and had not yet come into force. It mattered not whether this treaty was ratified or not so far as the incorporation of the Newfoundland Cold Storage Co. is concerned. The legislature of Newfoundland had organized and subsidized a company for the export of fish to the United States. The powers conferred on the company were solely the affair of the Newfoundland legislature, and Canada could certainly do nothing to prevent the United States admitting fish free of duty. He had more reason to hope from the Gloucester fishermen, whose monopoly of the United States market was threatened, and who, he understood, had already drawn up resolutions of protest.

Col. Kaubach said that just as the Gloucester fishermen had taken action to protect their interest, the Dominion government should take action to protect the fishing interests of the Maritime Provinces.

R. L. Borden said all Canada could do to say to secure for our fishermen the same treatment the company will receive in the United States market. Steps might be taken to secure the rights of Canadian fishermen to bait on equal terms with the company.

F. B. Wade of Annapolis suggested the establishment of bait depots by the government. This Col. Kaubach said would not do, the deep sea fisheries being too remote from the Canadian mainland.

Hon. W. S. Fielding pointed out that much of the hostility in Newfoundland against confederation with Canada was due to Canada's interference with negotiations conducted between Newfoundland and the United States. Newfoundland was a small colony, but just as independent as Canada. This country should therefore refrain from setting up any right to interfere with the island. Something might be
