SIDELIGHTS ON NOTABLE PEOPLE

BY THE MARQUISE DE FONTENOY

the new Earl of Dunmore is known in eral years in the diplomatic service. the army and in clubland, by reason of Another son of Sir Charles Murray his abnormal stature—he stands nearly was that unfortunate Cecil Murray who six feet four, and has hitherto borne died of a dose of cyanide of potassium | other member, mamery, and the occa the courtesy title of Viscount Fin- on an ocean line while on the way sion of the Irish House of Lords sitting castle—is, like his father, who died the other day, a Christian Scientist, and sum belonged to his cabin mate, a him was that of murder. But Lord Kingapparently believes, in accordance with Major Frederick Helbert of one of the ston was acquitted on his being shown the ethics of this peculiar cult, that militia battalions of the English army. there is no such thing as physical pain, the latter being merely imagination. It was found also that he had left a will, written on shipboard, bequeath-ing his entire fortune to this Major For when, some months before the Helbert, although he had only made his marriage of Princess Margaret of Con- acquaintance two weeks before sailing naught to Prince Gustavus of Sweden, for America. was her vis-a-vis at tennis, and had the misfortune to send a ball flying into her face with such circumstances, the difficulty in bringforce that she was compelled to quit ing home any definite proofs, and, the game, he remained mute, and did above all, the differences of opinion as not attempt to apologize, assuming, of to the question of jurisdiction, resulted course, that the blow could not pos- in no proceedings being instituted

ing unable to get to the front as a money by way of compromise. combatant, went as a war correspon- After a subsequent career of fraud paign, and those who witnessed it can- London jeweler. not to this day understand how he himself to the management of the fam- in the London Times. tly estate. He is married to a Miss In the book he had asserted that one good books of travel.

was created in favor of Lord Charles dressed to "My Brother Gabriel."

erty in the war of indepen- ceived. was sufficiently attached to nia to give its name not only to

It was this peer's daughter, Lady his courtship. Augusta Murray, whose marriage to The late Lady Evans was a chambeen given under the great seal of of the fishing in the neighborhood.

Murray. He figured in English society ex-cook, he married her in due form. for many years under the name of Sir Augustus Murray d'Este, and, on ac-who, through her first marriage, with mayor of London." Prince Frederick of Schleswig-Hol- I doubt whether ever before such a stein, is an aunt of the German Em- tribute of regard has been paid to a family, are great-grandsons of the most press. The late Sir Charles Murray, an weman who commenced her career as famous of all the first Napoleon's maruncle of the Lord Dunmore, now de- the chambermaid of a village inn. ceased, married the daughter of James Wadsworth, of Genesee, N.Y., by whom he had a son, Charles Murray, who has

SYSTEMATIC CATARRH

NEVER HELP UNLESS THE Knights. BLOOD IS GIVEN ATTENTION.

keep the mucous membrane inflamed.

Catarrhal poison usually interferes These organs must be properly toned and strengthened, otherwise you feel

To go direct to the source of the the blood-where can you find anything so potent as Dr. Hamilton's drives the virus of catarrh out of the line in the reign of Charles I., when their

Of course to clear the nose and head of mucous discharges, Dr. Hamilton recommends the use of Catarrhozone Inhaler which, if used with his pills of Mandrake and Butternut, cures the ward King Tenison. most obstinate case of Catarrh ever known. All dealers sell Dr. Hamilton's Pills in 250 boxes.

"Long Fin," the nickname by which sat in Parliament, and has spent sev- immortalized by the poet Milton, for it

In spite of these extremely suspicious against Major Helbert, and while it is doubtful whether Cecil Murray's will The new Earl of Dunmore, though a in his favor would have ever been cavalry officer, won the Victoria cross admitted to probate by any English not as a soldier but as a war corre- court of justice, yet the major, by improve their holdings not only by means spondent for the London Times. He threatening to make it the basis of a of financial assistance, but also by giving was doing duty as an aide de camp on suit in which certain feminine enthe staff of the viceroy of India when tanglements of young Murray would the frontier war of 1897 broke out. He have been revealed, was able to extort volunteered for active service, and, be- from his family a considerable sum of in America, where he was extensively During a brush with the enemy he entertained and accorded the courmanaged to rescue a dangerously- tesies of the best clubs in the leadcomrade, Lieut. McLean, ing cities, Helbert was dismissed from whose horse had been killed. It was the army, and now is doing time in one of the bravest feats of the cam- an English penitentiary for robbing a managed to escape unhurt, as he and The late Lord Dunmore will be rethe wounded man literally were sur- membered as the inventor and originrounded by the savage foe. I may add ator of that now popular form of enthat on the same day he had no less tertainment known as the smoking than three horses shot under him. concert. He also was famous as an He likewise has seen active service explorer, and one of his principal feats in the Boer war and under Kitchener in this capacity was to ride on horsein Egypt and the Soudan, and at the back from Peking to Constantinople present moment is major of the Six- When he got back to England he pubteenth Lancers, from which probably lished a volume describing his trip, he will retire now in order to devote which resulted in an odd controversy

Kemble, daughter of the Scotch laird of the great central Asian rulers, by who owns the greater part of the Isle whom he had been entertained on his of Skye, and has written one or two journey, was so convinced of divine consideration that he was in the habit of granting free passes to heaven by The Earldom of Dunmore originally means of letters of recommendation ad-

Murray, second son of the Marquis of Either a copy of the book or else Athol, and who was master of the horse some newspapers recapitulating this had not at that time succeeded to his to King James II.'s daughters, Princess story must in some wonderful manner father's dukedom, and, as the marriage Mary and Princess Anne, prior to their have reached central Asia for nearly was dissolved before his father's death, his accession to the throne. It was this a year afterwards the London Times wife never bore the title of Duchess of rst Earl of Dunmore's grandson who received a letter from the dusky po- Avaray. the last British Governor of Vir-tentate in question, which it published, and, while his memory is ob- and in which he denounced the earl as in that part of the United a liar, declaring that he had made but wing to his wanton destruc- a poor return for the hospitality re-

one of his sons, but also to cause it to vived the wife whom he married un- to the testimony furnished as to the rebe given to several of his granddaugh- der such remantic circumstances, and markable eccentricities of conduct and The Henrietta roses that bloom like and the death of this former lord mayor of London serves to recall the story of King George III.'s son, the Duke of bermaid of the Oak Hotel, at Seven-Sussex, at Rome, without the sanction oaks, in Kent, almost under the shadow of the crown, led to the enactment of of Lord Sackville's magnificent Elizathe so-called royal marriage law, which bethan mansion. Knowle Park, when her son, now Marquis of Avaray, and 22 members of the English reigning she first attracted the attention of the house illegal unless the consent of the young London merchant, who had oided that the ex-marquise was not a desovereign in council has previously come down to Sevenoaks for the sake

He fell in love with her, and, having obtained the consent of her parents. There was a son born to this union Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Boakes, the between the Duke and Lady Augusta one a village plumber, the other an

In 1892 he was elected lord mayor of count of his pretensions to royal rank, London, and at the close of his term that are of the normal height. They like was a source of no end of trouble and of office he was knighted by Queen annoyance to the reigning family dur- Victoria and decorated with the order ing the early part of Queen Victoria's of St. Michael and St. George, while a distinguished company, including the valuable furniture in the manifold which they rented at Versailles from Mme. archbishops and peers, cabinet min-Lord Dunmore has many American isters, and city magnates, assembled relatives. One of his cousins, Henry at the Mansion House to present to furniture, which included a Louis XVI. Murray, married a daughter of Samuel Lady Evans a testimonial, in the form Babcock, of New York. Another, Capt. of a life-slze portrait of her husband Augustus Murray, of the royal navy, by a famous academician, "In kindly married the daughter of David Lee, of remembrance of the gaceful help ren-New York. An elder sister of that dered during the term of office of her American born Countess of Waldersee, husband, Sir David Evans, as lord

Lord Kingston, who is just at present in the public eye in connection with the terrible beating which he inflicted upon a burgher whom he had discovered concealed beneath his bed on retiring for HAS BUT ONF CURE the night at Kilronan Castle, in County Roscommon, the foolish intruder being now in the hospital for the injuries which he received in his nocturnal encounter LOTIONS AND POWDERS WILL with the earl, may be said to represent

The first of the White Knights was the eldest of the three sons of John Fitzrerald, Lord of Decies and of Desmond, The way to radically and perman- who, some 800 years ago, by virtue of his ently cure catarrh is to cleanse the royal seigniory as Count Palatine, creatblood of the unhealthy secretions that ed his three sons by his second marriage hereditary knights, and thus originated the titles of the White Knight, the Knight with the stomach, kidneys and liver, of Glyn, and the Knight of Kerry. The title of Knight of Kerry is born today by Sir Maurice Fitzgerald, owner of Valencia Additional comment was aroused by the Island, on the coast of Kerry, and famous as a yachtsman o direct to the source of the

to cleanse, nourish and purify Fitzjohn Fitzgerald, the son-in-law of Lord Dunraven, and widower of Lady Rachel Fitzgerald, who was in America with her This grand medicine regulates the Valkyrie races for the America cup. The Sliminating organs and completely White Knights became extinct in the male father, Lord Dunraven, at the time of the system. Thousands of cures prove heiress married the first Lord Kingston, and thus brought their property into the Lorn Kingston is a scion of a family, was a son of Sir John King, the founder of the house, whose tragic death by drowning in the Irish Sea was com by the blind poet in his "Lycidas." Another member, namely, the second Earl of that if he had killed Col. Fitzgerald in a village inn at Mitchellstown, near Cork, it was because he found his son, Col. King, afterwards Lord Lorton, getting the worst of it in a hand-to-hand encounter with Fitzgerald, who had been caught in the act of making arrangements to abduct one of Lord Kingston's daughters, he (Fitzgerald) being a married man at the by profession, and did good service in the South African war as a subaltern of the Irish Guards. He is married to a rich wife, one of the daughters and heiresses of the late Sir Andrew Barclay Walker, of brewing fame and may boast of being that rara avis, a popular Irish landlord, policy of encouraging his tenantry to them a secure tenure of their farms.

The French Duke of Avaray has been within the last week subjected to a good deal of injustice in articles contained in the Brooklyn Daily Eagle and other organs of the American press in connection with the alleged forgery of a note for $1,200 bearing the name of his divorced wife, "Princess Montglyon," now at home at Tapan, N. Y. The information concerning the duke, which is presumably furnished by the lady in question, intimates that she possessed an enormous fortune at the time of her marriage, bequeathed to her by her father; that in 1883 she was married to the Duke of Avaray, "a French nobleman noted for his spendthrift habits"; that he "squandered his wife's fortune"; that "there was trouble about notes to the tune of 2,000,000 francs, of which she repudiated the signature, but which she eventually paid, in deference to the entreaties of a family conference, the paying of them practically wiping out her fortune."

The inference intended to be conveyed by the story is that the duke signed her name to the notes, and that she paid them to save him from disgrace. It is added that in 1892 she sued the duke for divorce and won her case.

Now, the real facts are these: The soithe time when, as the daughter of the every day in the year. Count de Mercy d'Argenteau, ex-secretary of the Belgian legation in Paris, she married the Marquis Hubert d'Avaray. He most unhappily. It resulted in a divorce, which was granted in favor of the then the lady.

The French newspapers at the time were among other things that she spent in the neighborhood of $40,000 on underwear in the short space of six months. She made sirable guardian for any minor, and insisted upon the lad remaining under the guardianship of his father, who confided the lad to his mother, the old widowed Duchess of Avaray.

Neither Charles Ney, fifth Duke of Elchingen, nor his duchess is fond of chairs, sofas, lounges, tea tables, etc., them low, as being more conductive to luxurious ease and comfort, and, in consequence thereof, shortened all the legs of the valuable furniture in the maneion Pembroke de Montmorency. Naturally the drawing-room set that had taken a prize at the Paris exhibition of 1900, and the result is a most amusing lawsuit before the tribunal of the Seine.

The duke is a younger brother of the Prince de la Moskowa, judically separated from Princess Eugenie Bonaparte, and both the prince and the duke, whose shals, namely, Michael Ney, surnamed by the great emperor "the bravest of the brave," and who, after trial by court martial, where he displayed great herosigned by Louis XVIII.

The marshall's eldest son married the daughter the banker Jacques Lafitte, and, after service for a time as aide de camp to the late Duke of Orleans, died, leaving a daughter, who became the wife of the Duc de Persigny, one of the chief ministers of Napoleon III., and a son Michael Ney.

The latter, after attaining the rank of general of cavalry in the French army, died in a shocking and mysterious fashion in a lonely house on the outskirts of Paris. both the police and the family having, from motives best known to themselves, always resisted every endeavor to eluci date the circumstances of the tragedy. fact that, whereas for several years the Cardinal Archbishop of Paris, the Bishop of Versailles and the clergy declined to accord Christian burial to the duke's remains, on the ground that he was a sui- the harbor and land commission of oide, they suddenly reversed their decision, and not only permitted the transfer of his remains to the family tomb, but likewise performed the rites of the Catholic Church over the bady. It is said that proof that the general had been assassinated was given under the seal of confession to the Archbishop of Paris; that his widow, who to the detriment of the name of the sen-present Prince de la Mogkowa and resent Duke of Elchingen are his and of their sisters two, namely, Cecile and Violet, are married to Princes Murat. The Duchess of Elchingen is a lady of bourgeois birth, whose first husband was Count Charles de Breteuil, brother of that Marquis of Breteuil who married to Miss Garner, of New York. It may be of interest to add that, according to general belief on both sides of the Atlantic, the great Marshal Ney survived his execution at Paris in December, 1816, for many years, the soldiers appointed to shoot him having purposely fired high. He is said to have escaped, and to have spent the remainder of his days either in South Carolina or in Georgia.

MODJESKA LEAVES BEAUTIFUL HOME

CELEBRATED ACTRESS WILL SELL HER CALIFORNIA "FOR-EST OF ARDEN."

somnolent-aired Southern California towns and been bidden, as have been hundreds of players, to that paradis- other. aic spot near Anaheim, feel a sense of personal misfortune at thought of the sale of and desertion by her gracious presence of Madame Modjeska's "Ar-

Having seen her walking slowly fringed foot of a hill, or gathering blossoms in the blazing glory of her rose garden, or plucking blooms from purple prodigality of her wistaria vine, or greeting or speeding guests from the wide doorway of the rambling. cream-tinted adobe house, whose many mullioned, stained glass windows lent it the illusion of a temple, with herself as its priestess, one feels that, however the new owner may A man hasn't, and A man has A top hat soul of its beauty has vanished with Modjeska.

Situated on a hill 2,500 feet above and a lady as a skirt and when a lady landed with floral beauty, has come has long air." to be known to the neighboring towns as "The Hill of the Lost Hope." They named it thus when a band of ar- Ruler. A lady is a kind and gentle wootistic dreamers, among them Henry man to us and gives us clothes." cumstances to abandon it. The name has acquired new significance since Madame Modjeska and her husband, Count Bozenta, determined to leave it also, though the leaving should wrench their heartstrings.

WRAPPERS ALL DAY LONG.

In her merry moods Madame Modjeska had dubbed her "Forest of Arden" the one spot in the world where disant princess had little or no money at you may wear wrappers all day on

"First in the morning," said she, "I put on a short wrapper and walked about my garden looking after the needs of my flowers, and at 10 o'clock I put on a longer wrapper and attend to my correspondence, which keeps me busy until noon, for I receive letters from all over the world. Every kind of letter comes to me, many from After lunch I put on another wrapper, one of my fluffy afternoon wrappers. marquis in 1892, and which created an ex. Then I take my embroidery or a book, Sir David Evans has not long sur- traordinary sensation at the time, owing for I read much, and go out on my insane extravagances in money matters of flowers of fire out there over the old open well are my favorites. The flowers are my dear friends, all, but filled with details of the case, showing these, they represent my dearest friend, the recipient of my soul's confidences. I find myself whispering strange, foolish things to those roses that grow over the old well, and they turning vital colors, like glowing human faces toward me, seem to understand and whisper back other confidences. After dinner a short wrapper again, and the count and myself walk about the grounds."

Madame, receiving one of her last guests on this 1,300 acres of beauty, said that she would remain in Southern California but a few weeks longer. She would then go to Europe for at least two years. She would write her memoirs. She would not, she thought, 4244-A PRETTY DESIGN FOR ever return to the stage.

She turned the mien of philosophy upon her final renunciation of the stage. "The time must come when one must stop. What is the use of struggling against fate? It is best to go at the right time.

"I have been very happy. I have no regrets. I have had many things to make me happy. In my art I have always had ideals. I never never appeared in what you call a trashy play."

A MELANCHOLY FAREWELL. There is, despite her assertion that she is happy, a melancholy farewell to the stage-these final words of the exquisite actress who played Marie Stuart six months in London, and who played Lady Macbeth 150 times.

"The age is commercial. One reason left the stage was on account of ism, was executed at Paris by a file of the syndicate, what you call the trust. French soldiers, his death warrant being It made things too hard for me. One jump was from Indiana to Quebec and then south. This is such a vast coun- to try, too. One appears before a strange audience every night. Riding day and night in the train the roar gets into your head. In America you are not partial to stock companies that play again and again in different plays in your own city, but it is coming to that some day. I predict it."

CHOLERA MORBUS, cramps and kindred CHOLERA MORBUS, cramps and kindred complaints annually make their appearance at the same time as the hot weather, green fruit, cucumbers, melons, etc., and many persons are debarred from eating these tempting things, but they need not abstain if they have Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial and take a few drops in water. It cures the cramps and cholera m a remarkable manner, and is sure to check every disturbance of the bowels.

The canal across Cape Cod will be constructed under the idint superviconstructed under the joint supervi-

Massachusetts The King of Benin wears a cap

large beads at one side. A SURE CURE FOR HEADACHE.-Billon headache, to which women are more sub-ject than men, becomes so acute in some Archbishop of Paris; that his widow, who afterwards married the Duc de Rivoli, and who died four years ago, as well as certain members of his family, was aware of why and how he was murdered, but that the circumstances of his death were so little to his credit that they felt any attempt to prosecute his alayer would be

OF A LADY

LITTLE BRITISHERS HAVE SOME QUEER NOTIONS ON THE SUB-

New York Sun: The readers of the Sun ago to secure a proper definition of a genlescriptions of a lady. They were evolved by English school children, and are gleaned from the Grayetoke Training School

Ada (aged 7)-"A lady maris a man and she goes in a carisg or she goes in a motor. Sometimes she is a rich lady, sometimes she goes to a ball, and she has glasses when she can't see, and when her father dies she is a widow."

Bertie (aged 7)—"A lady has got a lovely haves (house), and have got some serves and lovely frames and a ring and a lovely long hair and a pony trap."

Edie (aged 8)—"A lady has a very nice house and she has nice things in it, and when she is married she has very nice Every actor who has played in the wrings and then she mite have a nice husband and sometimes he treats her to nice things and then she treats him to nice things and then they be kind to each Lizie (aged 7)-"A lady is something like a man. But she's got long hair and she's and she's got a lot of work to do."

Ernest (aged 7)—"A lady is a mother of as a lot of children and she thest (tries) to get rid of her children."

Howard (aged 7)—"A lady has not got down the rustic stairway that led some trowsers. But a man has got some from the crowned top to the stream trowsers. A lady has got some Hair. A lady has got long Hair."

Ned (aged 7)—"A lady is like a Mistress and like a sister and she prhers (preaches) to people and tchhs (teaches) about God.' Charlie (aged 6)-"A lady is divergent from a man because a lady has difrent clothers from a man, a lady has Diffent eyes from a man and a lady has Diffent body from a man and a lady has Diffent shoes from a man."

Jack (aged 6)—"A lady has A dress and and A lady haen't. Harry (aged 7)-"A lady is sometimes a cook that cooks the dinner, sea level, the eminence, thick gar- isn't married she is called a widow a lady Dolly (aged 7)-"A lady is a kind Wooman. A lady is a Guvnais. A lady is a Sienkiewicz, who afterward wrote Jack (aged 7)-"A lady is a nice woman "Quo Vadis," having established there because she dont' have torn clathes, and a colony, was forced by unkind cir- she has a woch with her and she has a

Advertiser Patterns

MISSES' CORSET COVER.

Daintiness and simplicity are the twin attributes realized in this attractive a ccessory of the young girl's wardrobe, here made of batiste decorated with shadow embroidery, and finished with trimmings of beading and lace. The making of the garment is so simple that the least expert of home sewers can easily accomplish it. The shield sleeves may be emitted if desired, though most mothers like to have their young daughters wear them. For the 15year size 15-8 yards of 27-inch material will be needed for making. 4244-Five sizes, 13 to 17 years.

The price of this pattern is 10c. PATTERN DEPARTMENT OF THE ADVERTISER.

Please send the above-mentioned pattern, as per directions given below,

Measurement: Bust Waist

Age (if child's or misses' pattern)....

CAUTION-Be careful to inclose above illustration and send size of patsion of the railroad commission and measure you need only mark 32, 34, or whatever it may be. When in waist measure, 22, 24, 26, or whatever it may pattern, write only the figure, repre-

be. If a skirt, give waist and length made of coral beads, with a tassel of measure. When misses' or child's senting the age. It is not necessary to write "inches" or "years." Patterns cannot reach you in less than one week from the date of order. The price of each pattern is 10 cents in cash or in postage stamps.

> PATTERN DEPARTMENT, LONDON ADVERTISER,

I Not for young men only, but for gentlemen of mature years are the Semi-ready designs fashioned.

4 Good judges of good clothes know that Semi-ready Tailoring is the modern way of getting what you want when you want it.

Fine Sack Suits in Serges and Worsteds at $20 and $25. The $18 Suits are made from less expensive cloths and linings.

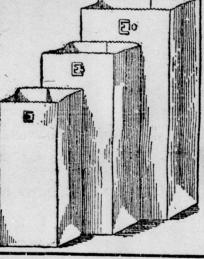

Semi-ready Tailoring McLEAN BROS., Dundas St., London, Ont

We hail from Hull and want Grocers and all other users to see that they are fully stocked with EDDY'S

Self-opening, square-bottom PAPER BAGS

the strongest and most perfect on the market. Always everywhere in Canada

ask for Eddy's Matches. DONALD McLEAN, Agent, 426 Richmond Street, London

SELLINGOUT

REGULAR PRICES

- CECULITY THE CEC
Lady's Wrist Watch, complete, stem set and stem wind $2 75
Lady's Hunting Waltham Watch, in a 25-year case $8 00
Boy's Waltham Silver Watch, thin model $5 50
Waltham Watch, nickel case $4 50
Gent's Waltham Watch, in a 20-year case
Gent's Waltham Watch 15 invalid the con
Gent's Waltham Watch, 15-jeweled, in a 20-year case $8 00
Lady's Waltham Watch, 14-K, heavy, with 4 large diamonds $46 00
Lady's Hunting Waltham Watch, in 14-K case
Solid Gold Birthday Ring$1 25
Repeating Alarm Clock. Was $2 00. Now $1 10
Eight-Day Clock, ½ strike, 22 inches high $2 25
Fine Cut Glass Berry Bowl
1847 Rogers' Proc' Knives and Education
1847 Rogers' Bros.' Knives and Frks, per dozen$4 00
Pearl-Handled Butter Knives 50c
Fancy Gilt Clocks, finely finished $1 50 European and American Back Combs from Masonic, Oddfellows' and all society pins
Pine III Hall-Price

P. BIRTWISTLE.

116 Dundas

Looseness of The Bowels.

It is very seldom during the summer months that most people are not troubled with "looseness of the bowels."

Sometimes it only goes that far, but generally it develops into Diarrhoea, Dysentery or Summer Complaint and has a tendency to weaken the whole system.

When the bowels get loosened up in this way and you wish to check the unnatural discharge without bringing on constipation, there is only one remedy to use, and that one is DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY. This remedy is not an experiment as it has been used in thousands of families during the past sixty-two years.

When you ask for DR. FowLER's be sure tern wanted. When the pattern is bust you get it, as many unprincipalled druggists will try to palm off a cheap substitute on you.

> Miss M. Hopkins, Roseview, Sask., writes: "I have used DR. FOWLER's EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY and found it is all it is recommended to be for Diarrhoea and Summer Complaint. We would not be without a bottle of it in the Manufactured by The Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. Price 350.

The Bulgarian delegation submitted the following proposition, as an amendment to the American proposal for the establishment of a permanent court of LEE HING LAUNDRY. Shirt collars fromed so will not hurt neck. Standup collars fromed so wing will not be broken. Ladies' dresses fluted Vests from ed. Goods called for and delivered. JOHN Formerly at 3121/2 Dundas etreet.

