> Haywood said Orchard had been at his house three or four times. Most of the members of the union when they were in Denver called at his home, the witness declared.

"Did you ever call on Orchard?" asked Mr. Darrow. "No, sir, never." "Did you ever have anything to do with buying a horse and buggy for Orchard to go out on a killing expedition with?" "No, sir, never."

Haywood said Orchard came to headquarters one day with a negro and said George Pettibone wanted to know if he could trade the rig for a gray horse which the federation ownedone of the 19 horses which had been used in distributing relief in the Cripple Creek district. Pettibone was anxious to get the horse for one of his delivery wagons. Haywood first met Steve Adams in Adams and his wife left Colorado in the spring of 1905. Haywood said that some time later he received a letter from Mrs. Adams, saying she and Steve had located a homestead in Oregon. They expected to do well, but needed a little temporary relief, promising to pay it back in butter and eggs. Thirty dollars was sent to them. The next he heard of Adams was when the latter was arrested. As to the letter he wrote to Harry Orchard's Liability Insurance, Guarantee wife, Nov. 18, 1905, Haywood said his note was in reply to one from Mrs. Orchard, inquiring as to her husband's whereabouts. He told her what he knew about Orchard. He had no way of knowing where Orchard was, ex-F. L. BURDON, M.D., L.R.C.P.
