A Farley-avenue Neighbor.

The Trying Experience of a Woodstock Man Who Nearly Died With Grippe. People that allow "grippy" colds to run on unheeded often find themselves in the perilous predicament that nearly cost Marx M. Melanson his life. "It was a long drive through the rain that started my cold. I didn't pay much attention to it, thinking it would pass away. I soon experienced a stab-bing tightness in my chest and throat. This grew quite intense and my throat This grew quite intense and my throat swelled below the ears and it hurt to turn my head. A terrible dry, racking cough kept me sleepless and miserably sick, and my head felt like bursting. A neighbor bought me Nerviline, and rubbed it in coplously over my throat and chest, and advised me to use it as a gargle and take it in hot water every four hours. I did this and got relief—the goreness left my chest and I put on the soreness left my chest and I put on a Nerviline Porous Plaster. Although nearly in despair when I started Nerviline, it was no time before I was well and on my feet again. Such remarkAMUSEMENTS.
