

TO THE CITIZENS IN AND AROUND TORONTO

We wish you all a most Happy New Year, and trust that yours may be a generous portion of Toronto's growing prosperity in 1911.

On Monday the New Year brings to you all a Civic Duty--a Home Duty--that you can discharge with the ballot. When this duty is presented at the ballot box, take the opportunity of being a Greater Torontonian and vote for all the by-laws that will develop a Greater Toronto.

Cast aside any petty inclination to vote for only that by-law which affects your particular part of the city; but be broad-minded and vote for the general development of the entire city--east, west and north.

The Toronto of Yesterday expanded to the Toronto of To-day, because the Torontonians of Yesterday acted upon their vision of a Greater Toronto. Greater Toronto of To-morrow depends upon YOU broad-minded men to provide the bridges, the roads and all improvements for the city as a whole, and not as a fraction.

Don't allow a tiny tax cinder to prevent the eye from viewing the larger and more beautiful city, wherein your property will be greatly enhanced in value and convenience.

Meet the New Year at the Ballot Box on Monday and wish your City of Toronto, Prosperity and Growth, by voting for Better Roads, Bloor Street Viaduct, Storm Sewers, Increased Hospital Accommodation, Street Railway Extension and an Improved Harbor for 1911.

CAREERS OF REVIVALISTS

Dr. Chapman and C. M. Alexander Have Long Records of Success.

The evangelistic campaign which opens here on Thursday next will be unique in the many distinguished persons who will participate in the work. Thirty evangelists will conduct the revival, and each will give special attention to a particular department.

The leading light of the movement, Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman, has been in the work for the past decade. Starting in early life as an orphan depending entirely upon his own resources, he has acquired a fine education and has had a wonderful career, remarkable for the unvarying success that has attended his efforts.

Charles M. Alexander, who will conduct the musical portion of the services in Massey Hall, is not unknown in Toronto, as he formed many close friendships during the Torrey and Alexander meetings held here in 1905. He has been with Dr. Chapman since January, 1908.

Rev. J. J. Low, the children's friend, will direct his attention to this phase of the work during the Toronto campaign. The initial service for children between the ages of 10 and 20 will be held in Simpson-avenue Methodist Church on Wednesday afternoon at 3.45. Mr. Low will hold children's meetings during the campaign at four different centres.

Rev. H. D. Sheldon is a business man who, at the solicitation of the late Dwight L. Moody, abandoned his business interests to take an active part in the evangelistic field. After his decision to leave the mercantile world his factory burned down, leaving him to enter upon his new career without a dollar.

The other leader in the campaign is Ralph C. Norton, a young man who has devoted his entire life to religious work, excepting three years of broken health, when he traveled for a wholesale house. He has been associated with Dr. Chapman for the past five years.

Over 100 churches will co-operate with these evangelists in their efforts to win over the unconverted of the city.

Car Traffic Blocked.

Traffic was seriously blocked about 4.15 Saturday afternoon on the Richmond-street loop, when Parliament car No. 278 jumped the track on Queen just at Victoria-street. The first truck got over the switch all right, but the rear truck turned down Victoria and swung the car off the track. Long lines of Queen, Dundas and Broadview cars were soon formed, but they were sent around Church and King. Traffic was held up for about 15 minutes.

Fell and Broke Leg.

Slipping in her back yard this morning, Mrs. McNicol of 78 Water-street fell and fractured her left leg. She was taken to the General Hospital.

CITY TO SHARE IN CANAL

A. E. Gillies Willing to Divide Ownership, He Says.

The Canadian National Canal Company have announced that they will offer the city a substantial ownership franchise to operate a subway terminal in Toronto. A petition to this effect will be presented to the city council early in the year. A. P. Gillies, the promoter of the scheme, says that it is the intention of the company to issue stock to the railroads that will become involved in the establishment of the terminal.

When asked if the railroads had given any assurance of financial assistance, Mr. Gillies said that no proposition had been submitted to them, as the company were not quite ready to go down to actual terms. He did not anticipate any opposition from the railroads, he said, as he is perfectly satisfied that they will look upon the project as good business, especially when they show them that they can handle the railway tonnage better and cheaper than the roads themselves.

Shoplifting Alleged.

Bessie Cameron was arrested on Saturday on a charge of shoplifting in the Eaton store. She claims to live on McGee-street.

JOYS OF UMPIRE'S EXISTENCE IN THE BUSH BASEBALL LEAGUE

Amongst the savant of gay lives is that of the "bush league" umpire. This is a tale of the joys of an umpire's existence, and of the ways of southern justice, writes Hugh S. Fullerton.

There is a pitcher, Reagan, we'll call him, who now is in another league. He is a spitball pitcher and a little tight bundle of nerve and courage, with a temper that fits the Reagan exactly.

A season or so ago he was pitching for Mobile. A few days ago I met him, and back somewhere in the dim recesses of memory was the recollection that he had some trouble down south. "What was that row you had?" I asked.

"Say," he said, "wasn't that the rowest deal you ever got?"

"I don't remember just what it was," I said. "I don't remember just what it was," he said. "I don't remember just what it was," he said. "I don't remember just what it was," he said.

"What did you do?" he asked. "I don't remember just what it was," he said. "I don't remember just what it was," he said. "I don't remember just what it was," he said.

"I don't remember just what it was," he said. "I don't remember just what it was," he said. "I don't remember just what it was," he said. "I don't remember just what it was," he said.

"I don't remember just what it was," he said. "I don't remember just what it was," he said. "I don't remember just what it was," he said. "I don't remember just what it was," he said.

"I don't remember just what it was," he said. "I don't remember just what it was," he said. "I don't remember just what it was," he said. "I don't remember just what it was," he said.

"I don't remember just what it was," he said. "I don't remember just what it was," he said. "I don't remember just what it was," he said. "I don't remember just what it was," he said.

"I don't remember just what it was," he said. "I don't remember just what it was," he said. "I don't remember just what it was," he said. "I don't remember just what it was," he said.

"I don't remember just what it was," he said. "I don't remember just what it was," he said. "I don't remember just what it was," he said. "I don't remember just what it was," he said.

"I don't remember just what it was," he said. "I don't remember just what it was," he said. "I don't remember just what it was," he said. "I don't remember just what it was," he said.

Mlle. Yolando, Pianist With National Chorus

Mlle Yolando, the Hungarian pianist, who is to appear with the National Chorus at the Massey Hall, Jan. 19, is now on an extended tour thru America, and is meeting with remarkable success at every performance.

Last week she was the special soloist at the Albany Mendelssohn Clubs association subscription concert and of her work on that occasion a New York correspondent writes: "Miss Mero played Mendelssohn's F sharp minor Capriccio, Liszt's 'Lebestraum' and his second Rhapsodie, a group of Chopin and Brahms pieces and a Rachmaninoff and a Dohnanyi number. Her playing was of a nature to make her auditors take notice of her wonderful gifts, technical and interpretative.

She played the Chopin numbers beautifully, eliminating much of the mawkish sentimentality that is often put into them, but not falling at the same time, to make them truly poetic. The most remarkable was done with so much brilliancy that it seemed something distinctly new. Miss Mero was recalled time after time, and was obliged to give several encores. Her work was undoubtedly the sensation of the evening." The program of which the foregoing was written is practically the same as the one which Miss Mero will play at the national concert.

The receipts for the calendar year will run to about $14,000,000, an increase of 20 per cent over the previous twelve months. The expansion of trade at this port has been little short of phenomenal. The increase has been regular and not applied to luxuries any more than to necessities.

CHEER UP! IT'LL BE COLDER.

Weather Man Says Frigid Conditions Are Here to Stay a While.

Cold and yet more of it seems to be the prophecy according to the weather man. Friday night was the coldest of the season; the mercury dropping to 7 below in the city that night. The cold wave, however, showed only comparative Toronto compared to other places in Ontario and Quebec. At White River it was 30 below, Kingston 24, Quebec 22, Montreal 16, Kingston 12.

In the prairies the weather was about the same, Battleford was 24 below, Edmonton 18, Calgary and Winnipeg 2.

About 8 o'clock Saturday morning the temperature began to rise, and by about noon the temperature went to 23 above.

Monday, according to the weather man, will be a nipper, and all those who glory in outdoor sports will be able to enjoy them to the full. The weather authorities say cold on Monday, and advise all to be well-prepared. Snow is promised for to-night and Sunday, but Monday will be clear and very cold.
