JOHN L. SULLIVAN AND THE CHAMPIONSHIP

The Big Fellow Scornful—Baseball, Rowing and News of Matters of the Sporting Man's L King

John L. Sullivan, the former champion pugilist, arrived in Boston on Wednesday for his annual vacation. Sullivan's brief exercises during his theatrical skit have put him in excellent condition for a man of his years. He closed his theatrical season last week and will remain with his sister, Mrs. Lennon, on Brook avenue, Roxbury, for four weeks.

When asked his opinion of the proposed Jeffries-Johnson fight, John L. with a snap of his fingers, turned away in apparent disgust, as though bored by the question.

A syndicate of business men from Fort Worth, Tex., is offering a $100,000 purse for the Jeffries-Johnson match.

Frank Mantell and Hugo Kelly, the Chicago middleweight, may meet at Sacramento if present plans go through. Sam Fitzpatrick, who steered Jack Johnson into the championship line, is looking after Mantell's interests.

Henry Piet, the French lightweight, is coming over to this country. Piet has a good record on the other side. Piet and Arthur Cote, of Biddford (Me.), should be matched for the French championship.

Jim Stewart, Jimmy De Forest's heavy-weight, is rounding into shape for a strenuous fall campaign. There is some talk of Stewart meeting Sandy Ferguson. The Jeannette-Ferguson matches are getting too common.

Jimmy Coffroth, the California promoter, is going to rest up awhile. Coffroth says he will not enter into the promoting game until September.

Honey Melody has placed himself under the management of Hughey MacLean, who managed Sandy Ferguson for a while. Hughey and Honey plan a trip to Paris.

The Runners.

John Swenberg, the Swede, defeated William Davis, the Canadian Indian and Pat Dineen of Boston in a 12-mile relay race at Boulevard Park, Worcester (Mass.). His time was 1h. 6m. 21s. and he defeated the two runners seven-eighths of a mile. Davis ran the first six miles and Swenberg lapped him three times. Dineen was defeated four laps and 13 yards. Before the race Lundin wrestled Polinski in a catch-as-catch-can match, winning in 27 minutes.

There is a good possibility that a Marathon race may be run in connection with the automobile carnival over the Merrimack Valley course at Lowell, Sept. 18. The board of governors of the Lowell Automobile Club has been in correspondence with several famous runners in regard to such a race. Sept. 9 has been reserved for motor boat races on the Merrimack river and the 10-mile track over which the race are to be run on four days of the week will consequently be open. The advance men for the racing teams to take part in the national stock chassis competitions are already arriving in Lowell, and preparing camps for their crews, who are to follow.

"Mal" Sheppard, the half-mile wonder, may possibly run one or two professional races before retiring permanently from the under path, but the idea that the Olympic champion intends to enter actively into contests for purses is erroneous.

Vassie's team, defeated M. R. A. Ltd. 5 to 0 on the E. D. C. grounds last evening.

Star Twirler of New York "Giants"

MATHEWSON.

Christy Mathewson, "Big Six," the star twirler of the New York Giants, is in great shape this year. The tall fadeaway expert had a run of twelve straight victories until he struck Pittsburgh the other day and the Pirates took his measure, knocking him out of the box in the first inning. Mathewson is a great twirler and by many experts is considered the best in the country. He has been the mainstay of the Giants for many years, and his great work in 1904 and 1905 brought a pennant and a world's championship to the Metropolitans. This year he is just as good as ever, and his effective work has kept New York up with the leaders all season. "Matty" is a Bucknell lad and was a clever football player while at college.

Smith and McLeod were between the points for the winners and Girvan and Sproul for the losers.

In the Lancaster league the Milford Stars won from the Portlands last evening by a score of 7 to 6. The record of the Stars is thirteen games won and four lost.

The Oar

Coch Ten Eyck of the Ottawa Rowing Club will return from Detroit with the Senior Four on Sunday and may stay to prepare the crews for the big regatta which the rowing club will hold on the Ottawa Labor day. The programme will include all the Henley events and many outside crews, including Argos, Hamilton, Lachine, St. Catherine's and Toronto have guaranteed entries. The Detroit and Buffalo clubs have also been invited. Several Ottawa crews will attend the annual regatta of the Lachine Boating club at Montreal, August 14 and the eight will keep on practicing in preparation for the Dixon cup race.

In discussing the Winnipeg carmen an officer of the Ottawa Club remarked:—"They'll race them for their shirts, their oars or their shells if necessary. We expect to hear of more Ottawa victories at Detroit."

Moncton Wants Championships

The Moncton Transcript has the following:—"Moncton might make a bid for the championships this year. For several seasons past, Halifax has been the scene of the annual meet, largely for the reason that no other association cared to handle it. It is possible that the S. P. or T. could be made to pay their way in Moncton this year."

CONGRESS PASSES TARIFF BILL AND IT IS NOW LAW

Taft Quickly Approves the Measure—He Gives Expression to His View on the New Customs Rate

Washington, D. C., Aug. 5.—The tariff bill has been revised and the extraordinary session of congress has been brought to a close. Both houses adjourned sine die officially at 6 o'clock tonight.

The closing hours of the session were most uninteresting. The revision had been according to the desires of some and with the hearty disapproval of others and the last two days had been consumed by members of the senate in expressing their satisfaction or dissatisfaction as the case might be.

The conference report of the bill was agreed to by the senate by a vote of 47 to 31 at 2 p. m. and soon afterwards the concurrent resolution making certain changes in the leather schedule was adopted by both houses.

Just as the hands of the gold clock in the president's room reached six minutes past 5 the Payne tariff bill, as the measure will be known, was laid before the president. He picked up a pen supplied by Chairman Payne of the house ways and means committee and which had been used by both the vice-president and the speaker in signing the bill, and attached his signature, adding: "Signed five minutes after six o'clock, August 5th, 1909, W. H. T."

President Taft tonight gave out a statement embodying his views of the new tariff act, which he designated officially as the "Payne bill" in accordance with the past custom of giving first recognition to the framer of the measure in the house.

The president says that though the bill is not perfect by any means, nor a complete compliance with promises made strictly interpreted, it is nevertheless a sincere effect on the part of the party to make a downward revision and to comply with the promises of the platform.

The statement in full follows:

STAR ATHLETES ENTER EVIDENCE IN THE CURREY CASE

In the Currey divorce case yesterday, Edward Bates, called by Mr. Teed, testified to having been called to the Currey house by Mr. Currey to see about building an ell. He did not say the building of an ell would spoil the house. Both Mr. and Mrs. Currey were present and gave their ideas as to the style of building. Mrs. Currey did not force her ideas. Mr. Currey had spoken roughly in ordering his wife to go away.

Mrs. Currey was recalled and denied practically all the statements made by Mr. Currey. On only one or two occasions, she said, had light wines been served to her guests.

Argument was then heard on the granting of suit money and decision deferred until Saturday morning. The case was adjourned until September 20, when argument of counsel will be heard.

A LONG FAREWELL

(The Birs.)

This refined cruelty is attributed to a French gentleman who had finished his holiday in England, and had just paid a very large hotel bill. He was indignant, but his native courtesy was unimpaired. "Send ze proprietore to me," he said to the waiter, and presently the host entered. Monsieur was all smiles. "Ah, let me embrace you!" he cried. "But why do you want to embrace me, sir, I don't understand?" "Ah, saire, but look at ze bill!" "Your bill? Yes, but what of it?" "Vot of it? Vy, it means zat I shall never see you again, saire."
