VITAL STATISTICS.

St. John Had 960 Births 880 Deaths and 430 Marriages Last Year.

There were 960 births in St. John during 1904. The death list was only 80 behind, but the reason for this is that all bodies interred in the city burying grounds are registered, and many of these came from outside places.

Each year, some inmates of the Alms' House and the Provincial Hospital for nervous diseases die, and although many of them belong to other municipalities, they are added to the St. John death list. The registrar of deaths often receives reports from St. Martins, Sussex or Hampton, and these are also added to the list.

There were 430 marriages in the city during the past year.

POLICE COURT.

Seven prisoners occupied the bench at the police court this morning.

Three common drunks were fined $4 or ten days each.

Thomas Skelton, charged with drunkenness and indecent conduct was fined $8 or twenty days on the first charge and was remanded on the second.

Arthur McNaughton, charged with drunkenness and breaking glass in the Salvation Army home on the street was fined $8 or twenty days hard labor. McNaughton stated that he had been in the city about three weeks, and was a member of the crew of the steamer 'Castalia.' He got drunk and missed his vessel and had been staying at the Salvation Army home. When asked by his honor as to how he paid for his lodging, McNaughton stated that he had been paid seven dollars for his services on shipboard. He pleaded guilty to both charges.

Mr. Hunter who resides on Adelaide street laid a complaint against a man named Wilson who is a resident of the same locality, for having in his possession a ferocious, unprovoked dog, the animal having bitten his boy aged about twelve years.

The lad was in court and it was found upon examination that not only was he lame but the leg was quite badly wounded and the little fellow is unwell. Mr. Hunter stated that on another occasion he had seen the animal attack a woman—and that he had seen the animal away from her. Her dress was torn down the front and she had been bitten—he did not know how badly.

Mrs. Wilson said that the people of the locality seemed to hold a grudge against her.

Mr. Hunter stated that he had no feeling in the matter and only asked protection for himself, and family. His honor held that the owner was liable for a fine of $20. He told Mr. Hunter to take his boy to a doctor, and have his leg examined, and if the doctor thought it necessary, an order could be obtained from an alderman that the dog be destroyed. The case stands over until Friday next.

POLICE REPORTS.

Officer Finley seized a double runner, last night, belonging to a number of boys who were coasting on Carmarthen street. It was placed in the next street lock-up.

The police were called into Samuel Cook's house, on Brussels street, to inspect Michael McAdams. The door of F. S. Harding's store open last night and secured it.

Dr. D. E. Berryman was called into the Water street lock-up last night, to dress Arthur McNaughton's hand, which was cut by breaking glass in the windows of the Salvation Army home on Water street.

The rear door of Geo. E. Day's printing office, was found open by the police last night. They notified the owner who secured it.

COASTING ACCIDENT.

Yesterday afternoon, young Florence McCarthy, son of Charles McCarthy, of the north end, met with a very severe accident while coasting down Chapel street, which is a glare of ice. There was another young lad on the sled with him, and the speed at which they were going rendered them unable to stop. The sled crashed into the board fence at the foot of the street and both were thrown off. Young McCarthy was unable to arise and was conveyed to a nearby relative's home. Dr. Lanney was summoned and found that his right leg was very severely sprained.

INCREASED PRICE FOR FISHERY PRIVILEGES.

There Was Lively Bidding at the Court House Today and the City Got an Enlarged Revenue --Particulars of the Sales and Prices.

The sale of the harbor fisheries was conducted by auctioneer T. T. Lantulum, this morning in the court house. There was a large number of the fishermen present, and the bidding at times was very lively. The prices realized were in almost every case away ahead of last year.

There was considerable rivalry in some of the bidding, notable in the case of No. 2-2-3 and 10, Strait shore, and in No. 6-7 and 19 to 21, Carleton shore. The utmost good humor prevailed, however, and if a man lost what he had been bidding on he usually made the remark, 'All right, old man, you can have it, and waited till the next lot was offered. The sale was cash, and Chamberlain Sandell, who acted as treasurer, had quite a tidy sum to carry down to the city treasury. Others who were in attendance were Alder Bullcock, Frink, and McGoldrick and City engineer Peters.

The following is a comparative statement of the prices realized this year and last, with the names of this year's purchasers.
