

PLAN POST SERIES BETWEEN NEW YORK AND WESTERN TEAM

RICKARD GIVES TEAM SEVERAL EXTRA DATES

Fight For Third Place Is Narrowing Down Rapidly

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—A post season hockey series that would see the New York Americans of the National League clash with the runners-up in the Western Canada League is being drawn up for Madison Square Garden says the World today.

Canadian Press. NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—A post season hockey series that would see the New York Americans of the National League clash with the runners-up in the Western Canada League is being drawn up for Madison Square Garden says the World today.

MONTREAL, Feb. 10.—The National Hockey League teams round the corner starting on the last lap of the three turn race for honors, the elimination process starts.

Within the next week the struggle should be thinned down. St. Paul's fate will be practically settled this week and the Irish team faces a stiff assignment, being called upon to play Ottawa at the capital tonight and back in Toronto against Boston tomorrow night.

The following is the N. H. L. Scoring list: St. Paul, Montreal, 24; Ottawa, 18; New York, 15; Detroit, Ottawa, 15; Toronto, 14; Boston, 13; Chicago, 12; Philadelphia, 12; Pittsburgh, 11; Buffalo, 10; New York, 9; Montreal, 8; Toronto, 7; Detroit, 6; Boston, 5; Chicago, 4; Philadelphia, 3; Pittsburgh, 2; Buffalo, 1.

AND, what do we find this year? Just one. And, it is our guess they were not in the shape they would have liked for that meet. Their training consisted of skating in merry-go-round fashion with none of the electrifying spirit of a dozen meets to stir the rust off their legs.

ALL THIS is not said in a spirit of criticism of the Saint John Skating Association. If you call it criticism, we hope it is understood as constructive.

BOB BORG, I. A. C. middle distance swimmer set a mark of 4:23.9-4 for 400 yards in a 50 foot pool as against his former world's record of 4:29.3-4.

NEW UMPIRE. NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—John Reardon, native of Boston, is the only addition to the umpire staff of the National League this season, a list of 12 arbiters having been prepared assuring three for each game.

JONES VS. HAGEN. PASADENA, Fla., Feb. 11.—Bobby Jones, United States amateur golf champion, and Walter Hagen, United States pro champion, have arranged to play a 72-hole match play game at Sarasota, Fla., February 28, and to finish the match at Pasadena, March 6.

RAIN INTERFERES. CANNES, Feb. 11.—For the third successive day all the matches in the Carlton Club lawn tennis tournament were postponed today because of rain.

From a snowbound midwest some twenty teams, where they start practice next Monday. Thirty one days will be spent in Catalina Island and after that exhibition games will be played for 23 days.

HUFFMAN VS. SHARKEY. NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—Joe McMahon is said to be planning a light heavyweight elimination tournament at Madison Square Garden to find an opponent for the champion, Paul Berlenbach. Eddie Huffman, sailorman from Boston, met in the first elimination tomorrow night, the winner to face Mike McTigue.

Along The Sport Trail

SAINT JOHN prides itself on being the speed-skating centre of the North American continent and if you are talking about staging big meets, the claim is well-justified.

CHICAGO can send five good men out on the circuit every year. This year, they had Farrell, Eddie Reed, Eddie Murphy, Roy McWhirter, Miss Littlejohn, Miss Witham, Olson and Sehnin, all dangerous skaters. Farrell, Reed and Murphy were up among the best at Binghampton and Detroit.

WE HAVE talked so much in this column about this speed-skating reputation being a great heritage and a valuable one that you are probably tired of reading it.

COMPACTS WITH SENATORS FOR 3-YEAR TERM

As a Manager, Harris Has Had Perfect Average

By HENRY L. FARRELL. (United Press Sports Editor). NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—In addition to being an astute young baseball manager, Bucky Harris, pilot of the Washington Senators is one of the shrewdest business men in the major leagues.

After a threat to give up baseball for the real estate business if he didn't get the salary he wanted, Harris recently signed a three-year contract for what is said to be worth an aggregate sum of $100,000.

There may be some managers and a player or two who are making tough bids that out of baseball but anyone who works for Bucky Harris for such a salary rates some kind of a decoration.

Three years ago, after he had tried and failed several managers, Griffith pulled a surprise when he announced that he had appointed Harris as manager of the team. Previous to that time Harris has been regarded only as a second baseman and not a great one at that.

It was the general opinion that Griffith was manager and let him do the managing but it was not long until baseball men saw that Bucky was willing to be a figure head.

Late in the season of his first year at the head of the club, the Senators began to climb and when they started on their last western trip, they were standing for the pennant.

Griffith went along with the club and occupied a box next to the Washington bench. He had suggestions to offer until one day, according to the story told by a prominent American league umpire, Harris got up and told him that his presence would be just as desirable at his hotel and from that time on, Bucky was the manager and boss of the club.

Last winter Harris held out for more money. He had to counter the argument that his first victory might have been the result of luck but he succeeded in getting himself a kick in pay.

Again this winter, along with most of his players, Harris held out for another salary boost and Griffith was horrified.

"I'll start the season with a bunch of bush leaguers before I'll give in to Griffith," Griffith threatened. "As far as a manager is concerned, it's easy to get on."

No one took Griffith seriously, of course, because no club owner can find managers like Harris growing on bushes and he finally had to give in.

Harris is too good a baseball man to believe that his team is good for many more pennants as it now stands and the bargain that he drove with his boss for a three-year contract is all the smarter.
