Matter to Come Before Presbyterian General Assembly, Which Opens Tonight—
Strong Opposition from Minority Expected.

Toronto, June 1—With the opening of the forty-seventh annual meeting of the Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada tonight in this city there will be the annual sermon from the Moderator, Rev. Prof. James Bellantyne, of Knox College and the election of a moderator for the coming year.

Already many commissioners have arrived in the city for the gathering, and it is expected by the time the assembly gets under way on Thursday, that between 500 and 600 commissioners or delegates will be on hand.

The general assembly of 1921 is likely to prove historical. At this convention of Presbyerians representing every section of Canada the greater question of church union will be up for discussion and will probably be settled, one way or They were the recipients of a large number of magnificent as well as useful as useful
