Ottawa, June 20.—"The railways are always breaking the law," said Judge Mabey at this morning's session of the railway commission, in handing out a roast to the Canadian Northern railway and G. T. P. for the manner in which they operated their new western routes. The matter was brought up by a letter from W. R. Dunn, of the International Harvester Company, who complained that the company could not get its goods out because of the board's order to the G. T. P. and C. N. R. obliging them to close to traffic their new sections.

"The railways have evidently misrepresented the matter to the western people," said Judge Mabey. "It was not by order of the board that these sections were closed down, but by the railway act which provides that they be not legally operated until completed. These railways have been carrying traffic on their uncompleted sections all along, and then people start to complain to us about the rates charged."

"The Canadian Northern and G. T. P. have been sending that sort of stuff all through the west, as I have noticed on my visit there," said assistant Chief Commissioner Scott.

"Railways have been carrying traffic on their uncompleted sections," supplemented Commissioner McLean.

"These are conditions the railways created themselves and over which we have no control," summed up Judge Mabey.

INCURABLE.
"Let me kiss those tears away," he begged tenderly.
She fell into his arms and he was busy for the next few minutes. And yet the tears flowed on.
"Can nothing stop them?" he asked breathlessly.
"No," she murmured, "it is my fever, you know. But go on with the treatment."—Silent Partner.

WANTED TO KNOW.
"What did your wife say when you got home the other night?"
"Not a word. She just sat down at the piano and played 'Tell Me the Old, Old Story.'"—New York Evening Mail.

THE METHODIST CONFERENCE IS BROUGHT TO A CLOSE

The annual meeting of the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island conference of the Methodist church adjourned yesterday afternoon.

At the afternoon session Rev. H. S. Young presented the report of the statistical committee. There were 699 infant baptisms reported; 94 adult baptisms; 377 marriages and 942 burials.

Rev. D. R. Chown and E. R. Machum were then elected alternate delegates to the general conference. The list of missionary committees of the various districts throughout the conference was read out. The president nominated the following to the special committee of conference: R. D. Smith, E. R. Machum, Dr. Inch, and C. A. Sampson. These were accepted.

The president and secretary of the conference with the superintendent of the Fredericton church were named a committee to make arrangements for the conference next year.

The report of the Sunday school committee of the conference was received. This showed that the total number of preaching appointments was 390, a decrease of two; the total number of Sunday schools, 316, an increase of five; number of union Sunday schools, 65; number of Methodist attending union Sunday schools, 775; total number in cradle roll, 1,123; a decrease of 210; number in the primary department, 3,296; junior department, 1,846; intermediate department, 3,005; senior, 1,630; Bible classes, 1,015; home department, 1,242; a decrease of 171. Rev. A. D. McCully, secretary of the Sunday school committee of the conference, was appointed secretary-treasurer of the general Sunday school fund and Rev. J. Heaney, treasurer of the Epworth League fund. The secretary announced that the ministers who had attended the conference had subscribed enough to bring the superannuated fund up to more than $1,000. He announced that the official vote on the union question stood: Clergymen, 77 for union; 9 against; laymen, 34 for and 3 against; the total being 111 for union to 12 against. The reports of the Sabbath observance committee and the board of examiners were then read and adopted. Rev. Dr. Flanders has resigned from the latter body.

For social joys we keep.

We save a single cent,
We pay no rentette for the flat,

FATIGUE

Left home in the morning,
Dodged a trolley car,
Got wet by a sprinkling cart
Before I travelled far,
Nearly got run over
By a passing train,
Had to step from underneath

A capsize aeroplane;
Motor car came whooping
As it turned a curve
Managed to get past it,
But it surely took my nerve,
I love my work sincerely,
There isn't any doubt
But getting down to do it
Is what wears a fellow out,

"Long Live The King"

Though uncrowned, King C. Gillette's invention, the Gillette Razor, reigns to-day over an Empire even wider than that which acclaimed His Most Excellent Majesty George the Fifth, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of all the British Dominions beyond the seas, King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India.

King Gillette's humble and most hearty thanks are extended to the five million men whose loyalty and acceptance have made such a magnificent success of the G. R., "The Razor of Today."

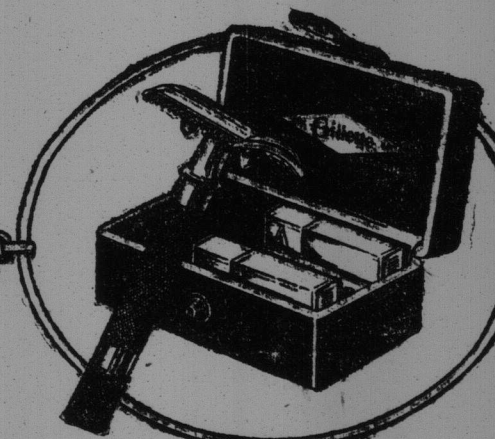

The princely motto, "Ich Dien" (I serve), could have no better exponent than the Gillette Razor. It rules supreme because it serves best every man who uses it.

The Gillette is the only razor adjustable for a light or close shave, a soft or wiry beard, a firm or tender skin. The three-minute Gillette shave, clean, cool and comfortable, is known and appreciated the world over.

The subjects of King C. Gillette enjoy a freedom from the annoying delays and constant expense of the barber shop, and from the discomforts of shaving at home with the old-style razor or a make-shift safety, which more than justifies their oath of allegiance.
