

STRIKING CONTRAST SHOWING GOOD EFFECTS OF LAND TAX

Unhappy Condition of New Zealand Before Land Was Taxed into Use

The Hon. R. J. Seddon thus describes the condition to which things had come. "We had soup kitchens, shelter sheds, empty houses, men out of work, women and children wanting bread. This was how we found New Zealand in 1890. It was to be a country where the few were to be wealthy and the many were to be degraded and poverty stricken."

A Good Dentist

gives the very blood of his veins to his patients, for there is no professional work harder on body and brain than dentistry, so it is indeed criminal to slight his hours of skillful toil by continuing the neglect of your teeth.

SOZODONT

We have 20,000 unsolicited letters from dentists in all parts of the world with words of highest praise for SOZODONT. It is the greatest known dentifrice and preservative of the teeth, differing itself from all other dentifrices in that it purifies the enamel and forms a protective layer of dentine on the teeth in the mouth.

SOZODONT TOOTH POWDER

and SOZODONT TOOTH PASTE are supreme in their class as burnishers of the enamel of the teeth. No grit, no acid.

A BOOM AND ITS PENALTY

Vancouver Finding Out That Sadder Words Are "It Used to Be"—A Really Boomerang

(Ottawa Evening Journal) Vancouver is finding out that the saddest words are not "It might have been," "This depression suggests doubt, conjecture, a possibility that nothing may have happened. The saddest of words, Vancouver now admits, are, "It used to be." All of which is really a boomerang.

After an unprecedented spell of real estate activity the inevitable reaction has come. If the lesson of the boom's half influence were one that could be easily learned at second hand, Vancouver need not have subjected herself to the present embarrassment and loss.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By BETH CAMERON

"MAN never is, but always to be blest."—Pope. "Some of us are always putting off our enjoyment. AFTER A WHILE we expect to take a rest, visit a friend or read a book, but that time never comes. All life is spent in meaning to overtake it, and enjoy it. Meanwhile we toil, drudge and grow old, passing by with unseeing eye the happiness we might get out of every day."

It seems to me the first line of that quotation might well read "most of the instead of 'some of'." For how rare is the person who doesn't go through life that way.

Someday we must get a chance to look up that old school friend who is living in the next town, we say. Someday we must make time to read that book that everybody tells us we would enjoy so much.

Someday we must get time to go up to the art gallery and look at that beautiful new Madonna or go to vesper service at that church where they have such wonderful music.

And then the days and the weeks and the months and the years of routine living go on and yet "Someday" does not come.

I remember once when I was a little girl, having been put to bed, I thought of the things I should do this or that day. "I must go to my mother and ask her to let me go to the woods to pick a certain day and let it be 'someday'—that is, 'the day' when all my somedays would be fulfilled."

And yet now that I'm grown up and am the master of my own somedays, I'm just like the rest of the world—I spend much of my life in meaning to overtake it and enjoy it. I let my somedays drift about in a nebulous future instead of having them today, as I so easily might.

Now is the best time to be happy as well as the best time to accomplish things. Now is the time to take that rest, visit that friend, see that picture, hear that music, do that thing that has been on your mind for so long.

How dare we leave these happinesses to someday. Why "Someday" is a long way beyond tomorrow and tomorrow—who knows that tomorrow shall ever be? The favorite saying of one of the wisest men I ever knew was "There is no such thing as tomorrow."

Let us lay hold of the happinesses of today. Do we not go through life blindly thinking that some fair tomorrow will bring us the gift we missed today? "A sure and sure" A Five-Piece Parlor Suite, richly upholstered in silk mahogany frame. Note the price . . . . . $29.50

Family Cured of Eczema

By Cuticura Remedies

"The Cuticura treatment has absolutely cured me and my family of eczema which I, my wife and two-year-old child had for eight months. It started with small pimples on the head of my child which gradually broke out in sores, and it was not long before I and my wife got the same. Our hands were one mass of sores, we could not sleep and the itching was terrible. We suffered for eight months. We tried different kinds of ointments and medicines but it did us no good and soon it began to break out on our bodies until a friend who had had the same trouble told me about Cuticura of which I used two ointments. Sore, Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Remedies, and I was surprised. After the first few days our heads began to heal and in two months we were absolutely cured of this terrible disease."
