Mr. Charles McCready had his brother from Inlay City, Mich., visiting him for a few days last week.

A FRIGHTFUL DEATH!

SUFFOCATED IN ASTHMA ATTACK

Every sufferer from Asthma knows the terror, the abject fear that overcomes them when struggling for breath. The old-fashioned remedies may relieve, but never cure. Best results come from Catarrhzone which cures Asthma after hope is abandoned. It's because Catarrhzone kills the asthma germ that it cures. Choking spells and labored breathing are relieved, suffocating sensations and loss of breath are cured. Every trace of asthma is driven from the system, and even old chronic experience immediate relief and lasting cure. Equally good for bronchitis, throat trouble and catarrh. The large one dollar outfit included the inhaler and lasts two months. Sold by all dealers or from the Catarrhzone Co., Kingston, Canada.

A WANT AD. THOUGHT FOR TO-DAY.

Want advertising, when used in a business way, is the silent salesman that tells the public what the advertiser wants them to know. It is also an insurance policy against them forgetting. A frequent injection of advertising stimulates the heart of business.

POSSIBLE RELIEF.

SHOULD Theodore charter the boats in a fleet. And forward his killings. The press of meat. From places assailed. A tumble would take. And how we would revel in elephant steak!

Best barons would tremble as over the wave. Was hurried to save. A trust hidden people. And hid them to break. Their rest with a feasting. On elephant steak.

Each crack of his rifle. A township would feed. And plenty would flourish. And no one would need. The price boosting dealers. In terror would quail. As on came the windfall. Of elephant steak.

Then let us take courage. Relief may be near. For soon via wireless. Good news we may hear. The water who pauses. Our order to take. May say, "Have or frayed. Your elephant steak?"

Not He.

"I suppose he has a good time all the time."
"Well, he doesn't."
"What?"
"Not a bit of it."
"Why, I thought he was a millionaire."
"He is. That is the reason he can afford to kick all the time and find fault with everything, and nobody has the nerve to poke his blimmed head and teach him a little sense."

Save it at All Hazards.

"What is the good of ventriloquism anyway?"
"It would be fine for our high priced opera singers."
"In what way?"
"In case of a fire they could throw their voices out of the window the same as they do their trunks."

Hard Enough at That.

Search for the fourth dimension. At once should be cut short. For in these times we find that three is all we can support.

That's it.

"He is bent on going to destruction."
"I see—a regular crook."

Many of Them Do.

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

The people who have been up in the air for so long ought to be able to qualify in the aviating races.

If an unhappy marriage can't be cured it certainly ought to be amputated.

Being a fool doesn't pay unless you are paid for it. Then it isn't foolishness, but business.

The bunko man always saves his conscience by telling himself that somebody is going to get you anyhow.

The man who can't take care of himself usually has his moment of genius in which he secures a capable wife.

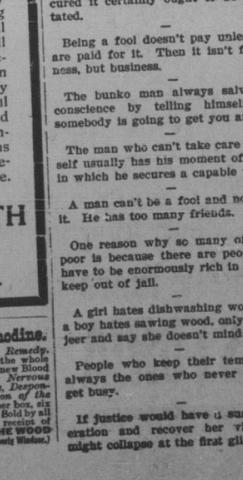

A man can't be a fool and not know it. He has too many friends.

One reason why so many of us are poor is because there are people who have to be enormously rich in order to keep out of jail.

A girl hates dishwashing worse than a boy hates sawing wood, only she will jeer and say she doesn't mind.

People who keep their tempers are always the ones who never let them get busy.

If justice would have a surgical operation and recover her vision she might collapse at the first glimpse.

HUN LEADERS IN RELIGION

The German people during this war will predominate."

Dr. Scholz is one of the foremost men in the Evangelical Association of Germany.

Yes, that is the moral issue. "A new Christianity," a "truly German Christianity," "the spirit of which is to be that which has animated the German people during the war."

This is to be forced upon the world by victorious Germany. Because I want you to realize what is involved in the issues of war, I have given these extracts. Fancy a new Christianity without Jesus; the modern German spirit dominating religion instead of the Spirit of Jesus! Do not let us live in any fool's Paradise. With such a spirit ruling in the governing class, we would have untold misery and persecution, and would be the slaves of the German spirit. May God deliver us!

When I read these and other like utterances, I was reminded of the vision of Micah (1 Kings 22), when a Spirit before the Lord said, "I will go forth and I will be a living spirit in the mouth of all his prophets."

This war must take the first place this year in everything. We are by no means victors. The whole position at this moment is most critical. We must arouse ourselves or we will be enslaved to the "new Christianity," inspired by the German spirit, not that of Jesus Christ.

We must see that every available man takes his proper place in this war, either in the ranks of the fight, or in the ranks of the helpers.

Enemies of the Country.

The man who seeks to enrich himself through our national peril should be treated as an enemy of the country, which he verily is. Then we must pray. Our prayers for the war have become far too formal, said in a routine manner. We must awaken and we must besiege the thrones of grace, we must lift up "holy hands." Ah! that's the secret. We must not lose sight of it. We pray God to come to our side and help us. That's the wrong way to put it. We must get on God's side, and then victory is certain. This nation must repent—turn from its sin and get right with God, then we can hope for God's power to deliver us. So long as we hold back and live in carelessness, indifference and worldliness we may force the love of God to discipline us that we may be brought to Him. Love desires our highest good, and this can only come when we are on God's side, i.e., the side of personal righteousness. A people consecrated to God's service must live holy lives. Let me close this letter with a motto, "Jeholada made a covenant between him and between all the people, and between the King, that they should be the Lords' people." (II Chron. 23:16). We are His in name, we must make it a living reality by giving ourselves wholeheartedly to do His will in righteousness. Then will be on the Lord's side, and that is the winning side.

RIGHT IDEA IN BUSINESS

THE modern merchant filled with the modern spirit carries his business to his customers' homes; that he doesn't wait to be found out or risk the danger of not being found out.

The best carrier of businesses to customers' homes is the newspaper. The Chronicle can carry every business in Ingersoll to the homes of this community with ease and without confusion—the business of grocers, dry goods men, hardware dealers, clothiers, stationers, boot and shoe houses, druggists, jewelers, furniture dealers, fruiterers, butchers, grain and feed stores and every other class of business.

To the Merchants of Ingersoll

Get your business into the home and you'll sell goods there. The Chronicle can carry your business into more homes than you are now serving. Ask us about the cost of advertising.
