Getting Green.

I had some important business to transact with a merchant in an Ohio town, but we had scarcely got started in his private office when in came a drummer from a Chicago house. He was probably new to the road, and he wanted some of his cheek shaved off. He was politely informed that nothing whatever was wanted, but he talked and hung on, and had to be fairly turned out. In half an hour he returned to the attack with a fresh stock of galls, saying:

"I know you must want something, and I've found a way to get it."

Again he was turned away, and again he returned to the attack. The merchant was now mad all the way through but he concealed the fact and quietly remarked:

"Come to think of it, I do need a few things. Get out your order book."

"Ah, but I know you would give me an order if I hung on long enough!" exclaimed the drummer. "Nothing like perseverance in this profession."

The merchant ordered 5,000 pounds of sugar, 10 chests of tea, 1,000 pounds of coffee, and a lot of other goods, figuring up a big bill, and the drummer was on his high heels as he withdrew.

"Pretty big order," I observed.

"No order at all," he replied.

"How?"

"He'll mail it to Chicago to-night, and to-morrow I'll concentrate by telegraph. Did it get over with him for hanging on, you see? All the fun in this thing is not on the side of the travelling man."

FIRST EDITION. A FEMALE COWBOY.

A large reward had been offered for the arrest of the prisoners.

A Resonance Escape From Death.

The grip car and first train were demolished and sixty passengers had an almost miraculous escape from death. Several of them were bruised and cut.

Disasters Land Slides.

COOK, March 28.—The trial of Michael O'Brien Dalton and others charged with hiding and concealing the police at the time of the trial of Messrs O'Brien and Dillon at Tipperary was resumed to-day in the school of law.

The Grippe in Chicago.

CHICAGO, March 28.—Damp, cloudy weather continues here and the epidemic of grippe has steadily grown more severe since the first of the month. SECOND EDITION. THE FRENCH VIEW

OF THE NEWFOUNDLAND QUESTION AND THE CONVENTION.

France will relinquish no rights. The Times speaks out—Body recovered—The Grippe in Chicago.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE.

LONDON, March 28.—The Journal Debates of Paris, in an article on the Newfoundland question, expresses its satisfaction with the convention recently concluded. It regards the presence of Queen Victoria and Lord Salisbury in France as an excellent symptom of the situation. "England," it says "has acted perfectly correctly towards France, but has displayed remarkable weakness in dealing with Newfoundland."

Commenting on the calls of the press to suppress the Utrecht treaty, the Journal reminds them that the same treaty gave Gibraltar to England. In conclusion the Journal says France will relinquish none of her rights.

The Times commenting on the foregoing warms France that England does not intend to drag her colonies, and reminds Newfoundland that foreign opinion as to whether she has any desire to become a French colony.
