THE KING'S THANKS

Reply to American Ladies is Causing Some Comment.

London, July 23.—Much gossip in American and English society has been caused by the presentation to King Edward, yesterday, by some American ladies of the hospitable ship Maine commemorative of a medal commemorating of the Maine's work, with a request that the King transmit the medal to Queen Alexandra.

It seems that the idea was opposed by a number of influential members of the committee on the ground that the King did not want the medal, but the others carried the day.

The King's reply to the delegation which made the presentation is causing some comment, as he thanked "this American committee" for their "loyal, dutiful sentiments," as he did the Kansas legislature in answering their telegram of condolence on the Queen's death, and as he also thanked the committee for bringing their valuable services to a culmination by presenting the ship to the government, whereas this was done solely by Mr. Bernard H. Baker, of Baltimore.

The King's Welcome

Telegram Read at British Congress for the Prevention of Consumption.

Magnificent Gift Towards Establishing First Public Tuberculosis Sanitarium.

London, July 22.—The British congress for the prevention of consumption was opened today by Field Marshal H. R. H. the Duke of Cambridge, president of the congress, who welcomed the foreign delegates to the congress and spoke of the interest taken in it by King Edward.

Lord Lansdowne, foreign secretary, also welcomed the delegates in the name of the government, promising all the assistance the government was able to afford the congress in its endeavors to combat a disease more deadly than war.

A telegram was read from King Edward to the Duke of Cambridge as follows: "I pray you heartily to welcome for me the eminent delegates of almost every nation who have assembled under your presidency, and to express to them my earnest hope that the result of the deliberations of the congress will be to assist the world in mitigating this dire disease which has baffled the most distinguished physicians for so long."

Prior to the adjournment of the day's session of the congress the Duke of Cambridge announced that a gift of £120,000 would be forthcoming for the purpose of establishing the first public tuberculosis sanitarium, as soon as the recommendations of the congress concerning its establishment had been formulated.
