BY JOE T. CLARK.

Three more years had elapsed and I was buried in a bigger law practice than ever. My friend, or enemy, Mark, had never bothered any reasonable sum of enemy, that the last of the property is the last of the property is a large of the property in the last of the property is a large of the property in the last of the property we found it give prompt relies and everything we tried failed. But on trying Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild strawberry we found it give prompt relies and the property we found it give prompt relies and the property we found it gives prompt relies and the property we found it gives prompt relies and the property we found it gives prompt relies and the property we found it gives prompt relies and the property we found it gives prompt relies and the property we found it gives prompt relies and the property we found it gives prompt relies and the property we found it gives prompt relies and the property we found it gives prompt relies and the property we found it gives prompt relies and the prompt relies and the property we found it gives prompt relies and the property we found it gives prompt relies and the property we found it gives prompt relies and the property we found it gives prompt relies and the prompt relies and CHAPTER III. enemy, Mark, had never bothered me during that time, having, no doubt, scurried across the lake as he said he would. Often in the papers appeared notices of men named Mark this or that, who were drowned or sent to penitentiary or killed in accidents, and often did I wonder if this could be my Mark wanted to see me, but I wonder wonder if this could be my Mark wanted to see me, but I wonder wonder if this could be my Mark wanted to see me, but I wonder wonder if this could be my Mark wanted to see me, but I wonder wonder if this could be my Mark wanted to see me, but I wonder wonder if this could be my Mark wanted to see me, but I wonder wonder if this could be my Mark wanted to see me, but I wonder wonder was a second account to the more found it gave prompt relie and very soon cared him completely.

I have made the foregoing changes in the business of the ADVANCE I have made the foregoing changes in the business of the Advance for two reasons.

The first is because many patrons who have been given credit, have abused the privilege to such an extent as to make the business of publishing the paper a non-paying one, and it is necessary, in my own interest and that of those who do pay, that I should no longer continue to furnish the Advance to those non-paying subscribers.

The second reason is, that I wish to meet the competition of the city weeklies, which are made up from the type of the dailies and, therefore, cost little for production in comparison with a local paper like the Advance, the type of which must be set up especially for it. paper like the ADVANCE, the type of which must be set up especially for it.

Having now published the ADVANCE for nearly 19 years, and endeavored to make it a creditable representative of Miramichi and North Shore enterprise—a paper which may be taken into any household without fear that it has catered to sensationalism at the sacrifice of that cleanliness of matter, which is too often neglected by the press of the day—
I have reason to hope the foregoing announcement will meet with general approval and be the means of largely increasing the circulation
