But on the other hand he has held office for the purpose of carrying out certain definite inpose of carrying out certain definite in-structions and the orders of the board And the boys will stand back there to the letter, Mr. Cushing has many to the letter. Mr. Cushing has many times been criticized for what the aldermen were inclined to regard as offences, although no member of the board has ever made any direct charges. Instead of doing so, the aldermen have been, in a roundabout, and, they dared, a somewhat mean lungs are quite sound it must be confessed, a somewhat mean lungs are quite sound way, seeking his removal. There was no reason under the sun why Mr. Cushing should have been engaged for When a girl is around—oh, the heroes made, would have voted for his removal. He is, however, still in the civic employ. son and daughter lost their lives from suffocation in a mine on their farm.

Lind had a private mine from which he supplied his home with fuel. It is reached by an incline of 400 feet, the bottom of the shaft being sixty feet below the surface. Lind had been working on the shaft preparatory to operating it, but had not provided an air shaft.

some work and later his wife sent their son, 16 years old, into the mine for help. The son not returning, the mother sent a 10-year-old daughter to ascertain what delayed the boy. Neither returning, the mother herself went in search of the family. She had entered the mine about half way when the light of her lantern was extinguished and she was compelled to extinguished and she was compelled to return by the fumes of escaping gases. She enlisted the help of neighbors and a doctor of Wilton and it was discovered that the father, son and daughter had been overcome and were dead.
